State Controller Will Not

Not in Budget Bill.

ing appropriations that are sought to be validated by a simple paragraph of ten lines in the budget bill.

FINDS LARGE FUNDS STILL UNEXPENDED.

This is probably the most important decision reached by Riley, but the second one is of great importance also. Riley has found something like a million and a half of dollars in various funds remaining unexpended. This, together with all unexpended funds collected by the self sustaining agencies like the State Board of Pharmacy and the like, will be confiscated for the general fund on the last day of June.
This decision will rebound to the benefit of the governor, who is looking for more sources of revenue, and it will give him a considerable sum for general expenses, but it will not be pleasant to the agencies affected which had been depending upon their unexpended balances to make up for short appropriations this year.

Riley's announced decisions will have a profound effect upon the financial struggle at Sacramento.

VIEWS OF RILEY ARE SENT TO GATES.

Riley's letter to Gates follows:
May 3, 1923.
Hon. Herbert J. Gates, Chairman,
Senate Finance Committee,
Room 101, Capitol Building,
Sacramento, California.

Honorable Sir:
During the budget debate I have been quoted and misquoted as to the position of the controller with respect to legislation now before you, and for this reason I desire to make clear to your committee my position with respect to the budget appropriation bill now before your body.

I have been requested by many individual legislators with reference to the stand that I would take upon the budget bill now before your committee. It is in reply to these inquiries that the matter has been taken up with my bonding company. In order that I may be correctly quoted, I beg to say that I have been advised by my bonding company to withhold payments upon any claims that may be presented for payment that have not been included in the appropriation bill now before you, or subsequent appropriation bills that may be enacted by the present legislature and signed by the governor.

I am advising you at this time of my decision to abide by the request of my bonding company in order that you may have definite information regarding my action with respect to the above mentioned items when presented to me for payment after the 1st of July, 1923.

I further desire to inform you that all collections for, and balances remaining in, the fund for self-supporting agencies, so-called, that have been created by special statutes previous to this session of the legislature will be ordered into the general fund of the state by me, and claims for the support of these agencies will be audited and paid against the sum appropriated in the appropriation bill now before you.
When that is exhausted, no further claims will be allowed by me against the funds collected under authority of the statutes creating the several self-supporting departments, except upon orders of the Supreme court of this state.

It is obvious that the above procedure is the only safe course for me to follow, when it is considered that the same rule will apply in both instances; that is, insofar as the appropriation bill is concerned and the self-supporting agencies.

Yours very truly,
RAY L. RILEY,
State Controller.

2 Helicopters Are Proven Successful

PARIS, May 4.—At almost the same hour, but on different fields, two helicopters accomplished the feat of rising vertically and flying horizontally in a complete circle.
The first machine was that of Henri Goussier, the French inventor. It covered one diameter of 120 yards at Valentigney.

The second performance was by the helicopter invented and piloted by Marquis Raulo Pescara, the Argentinian, which made one diameter of 40 yards at the Issy flying ground near Paris.

Oakland Children Lead America in Reading Ability

The reading ability of the children in Oakland schools is high above the average for the United States, according to a report by Dr. Virgil Dickson, director of the Bureau of Research of the school department.

In the nation, the average for children in the "high third" grade is 52. Oakland's is 60.2.
The national standard for the "low fifth" is 80. Oakland's is 85.7. In the "high eighth" the national mark is 106. Oakland's is 125.8. These are not percentages but standard markings.

The educators assert that the children of Oakland are nearly one year ahead of the general average in reading, though in spelling and arithmetic they rate at about the national average.

When a test was made to see how well the children of Oakland comprehended what was

Huge Sums Spent In Shopmen's Case

CHICAGO, May 4.—(By Interna-

TO REORGANIZE AFFAIRS OF U. C.

Changes Proposed Include Vice-President to Take Place of Officials.

panied by Dr. Barrows for a conference on university matters. With the Australian expedition now off his mind, Dr. Campbell declares that he will devote all of his attention to the reorganization plan which he is considering for the university.

That he will name a vice president, with the sanction of the regents, after he assumes the presidency, was his statement in confirmation of reports that he will divide his new responsibilities with an assistant. Dr. Campbell admitted giving the eastern field a hasty scan for a vice president, but declared that a person to fill the new position has not been decided upon as yet.

WILL ABOLISH POST OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY.

In creating the office of vice-president Dr. Campbell will abolish the present post of executive secretary and the office of dean of the faculties, combining both into the new position. That the present plan of having the faculty members in the Academic Senate recommend degrees to be conferred to the regents may be abolished and more power placed in the hands of department heads, as in effect at Stanford, is also declared to be one of the changes being considered by Dr. Campbell. Other reports go so far as to credit the new president with being in favor of the abolition of the Academic Senate entirely as an administrative body.
DESIGNED TO BECOME OF GREAT POPULATION.

In explaining to students the necessity for harder work throughout the medium of the Blue and Gold, the year book of the junior class,
Dr. Campbell says:

"The rapid and tremendous growth of the state universities during the past quarter century is perhaps the most striking fact in American educational history. A survey of our educational institutions reveals that in more than 80 per cent of the national area the student attendance is prevalently with state universities. In many privately endowed institutions, such as Stanford, limits are placed upon attendance whereas in state institutions there can be no such limits imposed. Not to mention other facts involved, I am willing to be quoted to the effect that the responsibilities of state universities for the higher education of young men and women of our country are going to be even greater in the future than they are at present. We should not overlook the fact that California is destined to become one of the most populous states in the union. Further, the seat of our natural foot. The greatness of the University of California in coming decades will be measured by the vision and wisdom of those who have been responsible for its development and guidance.

"The proper functions and purposes of a real university should be defined to the understanding of everybody. Its chief concern is with the truth; to discover it, to teach it and to learn it. The first and foremost obligation of the institution is to the students who come seeking to learn the truth and to prepare themselves for good citizenship. If I were asked to define the most pressing need of America, universities should I should unhesitatingly say, the development of greater reverence for the truth and the search for good in all things."

FRED MORCOM IS NEW PRESIDENT OF ROTARY CLUB

Retiring Chief Enumerates Achievements of Body During Term.

With an attendance record of 97.43 per cent of the membership for the last month of his presidency, Thomas Eaglesome yesterday turned the gavel of the Rotary Club over to Fred Morcom, newly elected president of the organization.

In his retiring address Eaglesome told the members that the local organization heads the list of Rotary clubs in the United States for attendance, and that it has become most thorough in the East for its hospitality to visitors from other cities. Out of the membership of 229, Eaglesome announced, the average number of absentees at each weekly meeting is less than six.

OFFICERS APPOINTED. Morcom, in taking office, announced that Rodney Kenyon had been appointed treasurer of the club, and Jack Block sergeant-at-arms. The newly elected directors—George Cummings, John D. Sexton, and Lee Newbert, and Vice-president, Warren Williams, were introduced.

Representative James H. MacLafferty, who returned this week from Washington, D. C., was the guest of honor, and told several anecdotes in connection with his experiences in Congress. It was announced that MacLafferty would be invited to make an address on Eastbay and national affairs before the club in the near future.

President Morcom announced the personnel for the coming year of the twelve groups into which the club is divided, and the membership of the various standing committees.

NEW GROUP NAMES. The groups this year are named after Indian tribes, and are as follows:

Apache: John Mauerhan, chairman; Comanches, Harry Hollidge; Navajos, Arthur Newman; Pawnees, Ed Huebner; Shoshones, Harry G. Williams; Sioux, Herbert Jackson; Cherokees, Don Basminger; Chipeways, Roscoe Walter; Choctaws, Roy Dunann; Hurons, Herman Michels; Iroquois, Charles Spears; Seminoles, August Gerhard.

Committees were named as follows: Educational—Eyer Whiting, chairman; Ben Pittman, Joe Roper, Ford Samuel, John D. Sexton. Entertainment—Theodore Schlueter, chairman; Max Greenberg, Fred Bischoff, Joe Todd, George Cummings. Publicity—Ben H. McNair, chairman; Clarence Vincent, William F. D. Brown, James L'Honmedieu, Lee H. Newbert. Boys' work—James Ginn, chairman; Francis Huhter, Lewis Thunen, Myron Bracken, Warren Williams. Visiting the sick—Robert Horst, chairman; John Todd, William Gillanders, Alvin Goodmundson, Charles Keiver. Program—Roy Hammon, chairman; Edward C. Lyon, Warren Williams. Fellowship—Charles Nesbitt, chairman; Ed Duval, William Fischer, Robert Dryden, Lewis Thunen. Music—Zura Bells, chairman; Clarence Engvick, Archie Thomas.

BARROWS URGES NEW DORMITORIES

BERKELEY, May 4.—A new plea for dormitories to house college students is made by President David P. Barrows in the fifteenth anniversary edition of the "Blue and Gold," annual of the junior class, which has appeared on the campus.

Dr. Barrows extends his last greetings to students as college executive and urges that support be given to a plan for dormitories, pointing to the traditions growing up about such institutions at Yale, Harvard and other eastern seats of learning.

This year's "Blue and Gold," which marks the fifteenth anniversary of the college annual, is especially noteworthy for its high type of art work and for other distinctive features. Russell C. Lockhart is editor and H. E. Wadsworth, manager of the publication.

TERTIARY SKULL PROVES TO BE CURIOUS STONE

BUENOS AIRES, May 4 (By the Associated Press).—The supposed skull of the tertiary period found in Patagonia is simply a curiously-shaped stone and of no scientific value, according to announcement made by a committee of scientists of the Buenos Aires and La Plata Museums of Natural History, which has carefully examined it.

The supposed skull was discovered some time ago by Professor J. G. Wolfe of La Plata University while in Patagonia. It was in the possession of a settler, who had found it.

Professor Wolfe, accompanied by Dr. Elmer S. Riggs of the Field Museum, Chicago, started for Patagonia recently to re-examine the object with the purpose of determining whether or not it was the skull of a human of the tertiary period.

BOARD MEMBERS MAY FACE SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—The five members of the chiropractic examining board face removal from office as the result of the permission granted by the attorney-general yesterday for the institution of a suit against the board. The members of the board are Ray S. Labarre, Albin Peterson, W. A. Messick, James P. Compston and Joseph B. Edgerton.

Under the chiropractic act the requirements for appointment to the first board include that a member must have practiced as a chiropractor for three years prior to his appointment. The five members say they have practiced that period, but admit they practiced without a medical license, which was required before the passage of the chiropractic act.

The interpretation given the act by the attorney-general requires a member of the board to have practiced three years before he can hold office.

Legal proceedings were instituted in February against the board by Glenora, Cleve and Van Dyne, attorneys representing several licensed chiropractors. About 200 practitioners in the state are eligible to the board, according to W. W. Glenora.

breaking. Aviation in America had become a reality.

In spite of this initial success, the men who flew the machine from New York to San Diego yesterday were the same men who had used in two previous attempts to cross the American continent without a stop, the first of which was halted by a fog which prevented them from finding their way through the mountain passes east of here, and the second of which terminated through a failure of their engine at Indianapolis last November.

2625 MILES IN 24 HOURS, 50 MINUTES

Today, in a hangar at Rockwell field, near here, there stands a lineal descendant of that "contraption" which only day before yesterday stood in a hangar at Hempstead, New York, 2625 miles away, having traversed the continent in the air, under its own power and without a stop in 26 hours, 50 minutes and 58.25 seconds.

Another step in the progress of aviation had been accomplished and one which surpasses what inventors at first sought merely to imitate—the flight of a bird, for no bird can maintain continuously for so long a time or such a distance.

The men who flew the machine from New York are Lieutenants Oakley G. Kelly and John A. MacReady, who between them already held seven aviation records for speed, duration of flight and weight taken into the air on a single airplane.

AVIATORS ALREADY PLANNING NEW RECORDS

The men thought little of their accomplishment and almost as soon as they landed were making plans for attempting to establish a new record for duration of flight and an attempt to fly around the world.

The plane they flew into San Diego yesterday was the same they had used in two previous attempts to cross the American continent without a stop, the first of which was halted by a fog which prevented them from finding their way through the mountain passes east of here, and the second of which terminated through a failure of their engine at Indianapolis last November.

TREMENDOUS OVATION FOR SUCCESSFUL FLYERS.

The aviators were given such a greeting here on their arrival as comes to but few men San Diegans, one by nativity and the other by adoption, the city took them to her heart with unanimous acclaim. Although the big T-2 landed in the middle of the field the crowd that gathered was so large and pressed so close to the aviators by the time Major Henry A. Arnold, commandant of the field arrived he virtually had to fight his way through.

"You have accomplished the impossible," Major Arnold declared in his enthusiasm, and his words found chorus from every quarter of the country in telegrams, including one from President Harding, which read: "You have written a new chapter in the triumphs of American aviation."

MEN GRIMY BUT IN GOOD PHYSICAL SHAPE.

Both the aviators were in good physical condition when they landed. Except for a few splatters of oil from the Liberty engine that had brought them a greater distance than any persons have ever flown previously in one continuous flight they were seemingly as fresh on landing as if they had taken an hour's jaunt.

A bath, a little food and a cigarette and they began telling newspaper men how they planned to try for new and more difficult records.

The story of the flight was told by the men who made it in a matter of fact way with first one and then the other putting in a sentence or a word to illuminate some point as they alternately carried on the description.

DIFFICULTY IN GETTING MOTOR INTO FULL PLAY

There was the start when the hangars at Hempstead were misused only by inches. There was difficulty in getting the motor's full power into play for the first few hundred miles and the thrill Mac-

Ready described when they ran into a mammoth beacon light at Belleville, Ill., piercing the clouds and darkness to guide them on their way. There was the danger of the desert in Arizona, a menace of aviators in the past, where landing in the day time is dangerous and at night most likely fatal. And then San Diego, nestling like a miniature paradise on the bay of the Pacific Ocean in Southern California—home. A flight finished. A record made. Baths, food and cigarettes.

One note of anxiety was in the story. That remained from the fear while over New Jersey that the voltage regulator of their ignition system would force them to land. MacReady repaired it.

The airplane had about forty gallons of gasoline left in its tanks when it landed out of the 725 gallons it took at the start. The plane was the same the flyers had used in earlier attempts to fly across the continent, but the motor was different. The motor used is a 400-horse-power standard compression Liberty. To this type of motor aviation officers ascribe the success of the flight that is, next to the grit and flying ability of the two lieutenants.

Major Arnold declared the record set by Kelly and MacReady demonstrated the feasibility of commercial airlines across the continent. Passengers, he said, could be carried a distance in one day which the fastest passenger trains require five to cover.

By WILLIAM PARKER, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

SAN DIEGO, May 4.—While the laurels of victory are still green, the United States army aviators, Lieutenants Oakley Kelly and John A. MacReady, will seek still another world record. This time, it was revealed today, their goal will be a sustained flight of forty-eight hours and it will be attempted shortly at Dayton, Ohio.

The day of triumph for the two aviators was to have culminated last night at a dinner at which several hundred American Legion men and prominent citizens of San Diego and United States army and navy officers, were gathered. Lieutenant Kelly showed up half an hour late and as embarrassed as a school boy with his first love, punts. Lieutenant MacReady did not show up at all and it was whispered about the tables that he was not the better of him.

At the outset a few invited guests had their coffee from a vacuum container. It had been told the previous day at a Bowery lunch room in New York. A New York newspaper man had previously also was passed about the table.

A movement to preserve the giant plane in which the two intrepid aviators made their epochal flight was started today by members of the American Legion when it was reported the ship had made its last flight and would be scrapped. The legion will request the war department to donate the plane to the war exhibit at Balboa park, San Diego.

San Diego friends of Lieutenant MacReady are telling a story of persistence which has won him world fame. MacReady, according to the story, was a student aviator at Rockwell field in 1918 but seemed unable to qualify as a solo flyer. He faced discharge from the service. Then, one day he confided to friends as he went up that he was going to conquer the machine or it would conquer him. It was on that flight he qualified and it was on the same field where he was $5000 RPT PRESENTED TO SUCCESSFUL FLYERS.

A telegram addressed both flyers.

as individuals was from General

"Now I can take that extended army air service. It read: "Colonel Franklin Kennedy, former executive in the service, wins $5000 on your flight, all of which he tenders you with his compliments. Wire acceptance immediately Plaza hotel."

The following answer was sent: "Accept with pleasure, if it is not a dream. You know us lieutenants."

long," declared Kelly gleefully to Major Arnold as he read the telegram on the field. "Anytime you want it," said the major, with a smile, and handed the telegram to Miss Watson, Kelly's fiancée, who stood nearby.

FEDERATION HAS HOT CLASH OVER MOVIE REVIEWS

Northern and Southern Sections of State Engage in Acrid Verbal Battle.

By EDNA B. KINARD.
EUREKA, Calif., May 4.—North and South came to grips when a resolution endorsing the programs of work of the Berkeley films committee was presented for action yesterday before the twenty-second annual convention of California Federation of Women's Clubs. Although the resolution was adopted, it furnished the subject for stirring debate in which feminine orators of both sections of the State participated.

The southern women demanded reasons for designating particularly the Berkeley program of pre-viewing pictures when they were carrying on a service with the producers in the center of the industry. Mrs. W. L. Sales of Petaluma, who introduced the resolution, replied that it was more the project of radio broadcasting of committee findings than methods in which support of the organized women were asked. The system operated by the college town women was pronounced constructive and of value to the smaller communities, setting a high standard in many respects. A majority vote carried the resolution.

ON BUSINESS BASIS.
The California Federation of Women's Clubs is placed on a strictly business basis by authorization of a board of seven trustees elected for six-year terms to administer the financial affairs of the organization.

The board will prepare the annual budget same as the advisers to the executive board in business matters and invest the funds of the federation with approval of the executive board.

Democracy of California clubwomen was given new stress by a vote of the convention which refused amendment to the report of the revision committee eliminating the word "club" from the constitution. The federation return is the method of receiving the regular ticket from a nominating board and provides machinery for introduction of an opposition ticket. Proposed resolutions hereafter will be published with the convention call.

Protest of high sugar prices is made by the federation. The resolution was adopted without debate.

Pledges of loyalty were made to the flag, together with promises to encourage its display and discourage its use for decoration or costume were offered by the women. A campaign to encourage a larger polling of vote at general elections was authorized. Efforts to promote the movement for permanent world peace without resort to political parties were endorsed.

Congress is petitioned by the California women to transfer to San Francisco the land upon which the Palace of Fine Arts is located. San Francisco is urged to preserve this institution.

DRUG WEEK ASKED.
Congress is also asked to set apart a week to be devoted to an educational campaign against the use of drugs.

The funds asked by the State Board of Education is requested restored to the State budget by the federation. Continuation of the State Board of Charities is urged. Approval of the Boulder Canyon dam in Imperial Valley is extended by the women.

The State Industrial Farm for Women; community property law amendments and uniform divorce and marriage laws were among the social movements given endorsement. Clubwomen of the State have invested approximately three million dollars in property, according to Mrs. E. D. Knight of San Francisco, past State president. She recommended employment of business secretaries by clubs able to afford the office. Dr. Edgar Robinson, department of history, Stanford University, was the principal speaker last night. She presented a background of American foreign policy.

Delegates are beginning to return to their homes tonight.

Oakland was honored in the election of Mrs. George A. Rice, as State treasurer. Mrs. W. A. Fitzgerald, retiring president, delivered the closing address. Her subject was conservation, the hope of civilization. The Emergent club holds its annual banquet tonight. The convention closed with a large number of delegates leaving here early tomorrow morning for San Francisco.

EXCESSIVE MANNERS ANNOY GOOD FRIENDS

"Say, Freda is getting so polite these days you wouldn't know her. So many manners she can't think of anything else."

"I can't imagine it. Whatever struck her?" She never had had manners and is so naturally charming that she doesn't need a lot of superficial polish."

"Of course not. But she read some of these circulars about knowing the correct way to do this, that and the other and she got the thirst for knowledge."

"Well, a lot of people need those books badly, but not Freda. She goes into everything so thoroughly. I can imagine her concentrating on manners the same way."

"She's concentrating all right. She doesn't have any time to be natural any more and doesn't have so much fun."

"She'll get over it, I'm sure. And, by the way, did you tell her what Elsie told you about the trip down the peninsula?" She always loves picnics, so she won't have a chance for excessive manners or mannerisms."

"No, I didn't tell her, but I will this afternoon. She'll be glad to go, as she has the dearest new sports outfit that will be just the thing for the trip. Really, it is the cleverest costume. You must see it. And it has only been priced at $15 in ten. Freda does have good looking clothes."

Berkeley Police Get Pay Increase

BERKELEY, May 4.—Following the example set by the citizens in voting the members of the fire department an increase in salaries at the election Tuesday, the city council today voted to grant members of the police department a similar increase.

Officers, with the exception of the chief of police, $30 more each, month.

The police increase was voted by council as a result of an understanding that if the people allowed the firemen higher salaries, similar action would be taken by the council for the police department.

At today's session the council finished negotiations for the purchase of a lot on the southwest corner of Ashby and Benvenue avenues for a branch library.

CHASE INSTINCT IN CAGED BEASTS

Wild Animals in Captivity at Night Live Imaginative Lives

LONDON, May 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Wild animals in captivity live at night an imaginative life entirely different from their dull day hours when the curious file by in front of their cages, according to R. T. Pocock, superintendent of the Zoological Gardens of London who is about to retire after many years of service. At night the in-born habits of the jungle show themselves in striking fashion, and the beasts throw off the sleepy veneer of indifference they seem to adopt when humans stand in front of their enclosures and speculate upon what might happen were the animals suddenly given their liberty.

Speaking of the differences he has noticed in the behavior of wild beasts by day and night, Pocock says:

"If you go into the lions' house during the day you are nearly always impressed by the peaceful way in which the animals regard you. But visit them in the darkness and instantly you are aware of the change."

INSTINCTS RETURN.

"As it by magic their instincts to hunt and to kill have returned. Nothing is more weird than to walk past the cage of a lion or a tiger and then to turn around. To your astonishment you see that the animal, as you went by, has been striking you, just as if it were still living in natural surroundings. On the instant you turn your head he drops flat on the floor of the cage. His great, lithe body remains perfectly still as he lies there intently watching you. I do not think wild animals like these ever lose their instincts no matter how long they are kept in captivity. And at night, when all is still and there are none of the distractions of the daylight, they can live again in the world from which we have brought them."

"In a climate like that of London," says Pocock, "animals in captivity must always be a source of anxiety, and the wonder to me is that they live so healthily. Most people, for some reason, appear to think that animals should never be ill, but that of course is absurd. My experience is that the weather affects them to precisely the same extent that it does human beings. The most depressing to all the zoo inhabitants, while dry, sunny weather cheers them up and their happiness is undoubted."

RATE OF DEATHS.

"When you see a big lot of deaths recorded in the newspapers, you will note precisely the same mortality rate at the zoo. Our birds with a covering of feathers, are, on the whole, very much able to withstand cold and exposure than beasts protected by hair. You can keep tropical parrots in the open all the year round with comparative ease, and although you can do the same with a good many tropical animals covered with hair, you are never sure that it applies to one member of the species will apply equally well to others."

"It is a common belief that wild animals ever make good pets. 'No wild animals, in my opinion,' he says, 'can be relied on as a pet. Man already has domesticated practically all that can be domesticated.'"

TROOPS TO HAVE NATIVE OFFICERS

DELHI, India, May 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The government of India's plan for the "Indianization" of a section of the Indian army has been approved by the legislative assembly and is to be put into effect at once. This scheme, which represents a partial solution to the demands made incessantly for several years in the legislative assembly and through public opinion, calls for the "Indianization" of eight infantry regiments for the purpose of testing the plan. The government considers a start should be made at once so as to give Indians a fair opportunity of proving that regiments officered by Indians will be efficient.

This plan has been drawn up by Lord Rawlinson, commander-in-chief of the army. In explaining it he says: "The government considers a start should be made at once so as to give Indians a fair opportunity of proving that regiments officered by Indians will be efficient."

Dog Is Spanked For Stealing Newspapers

WINNIPEG, May 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The culprit who for a month has been stealing morning papers in a district newspaper's exclusive residence section of Winnipeg, has been found. A careful search was organized by delivery boys and district managers of newspapers, who resented the damage that chief had been negligent of their duties. The culprit is "Colonel," a possessor of a black fur coat, twinkling eye, stubby tail, a bark and a nose for news. He was arrested, spanked and released, after he had been seen snatching freshly delivered newspapers and burying them.

G. O. P. Convention

ST. LOUIS, May 4. — Chicago will get the 1924 Republican national convention, according to Jacob L. Babler, member of the Republican national committee from Missouri, who announced yesterday that Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the committee, had received pledges from 28 of the 52 members of the committee to vote for holding the convention at Chicago.

ONE more instance of the fact of being given in Paris, where Lucien Guilty is appearing in Moliere's "Tartuffe". At least the reviewers seem to be unanimous on the subject that Guilty has arrived in his understanding of the little character. This is a quotation from one of the reviewers gives an idea of the storm that has brewed:

"Paris is indulgent to the comedians it loves. It is particularly indulgent to Lucien Guilty, who, with his qualities of puissance and originality may permit himself to take extraordinary liberties, and still remain a great actor. Last year in Moliere's 'Misanthrope' he gave us an Alceste, sad and philosophizing, which was from beginning to end an enormous misinterpretation. It was, however, the error of a real artist and Paris applauded the artist."

"But his Tartuffe! What a deception! For two acts the public had been waiting for Lucien Guilty—who as Tartuffe does not appear until the third act and when at least the curtain rose on the third act the public was not a little amazed when the purest accent of the sons of Auvergne reached its ears. Yes, the great Guilty, the actor par excellence, the clever interpreter of so many roles, the powerful innovator, the unconfuted master, had found no better novelty than to speak 'Auvergnat'."

TWENTY SEASONS AGO TODAY
"The Toyman" is at the Tivoli with Farris Hartman, Annie Myers, Teddy Webb and Arthur Cunningham. Next week Edwin Stevens comes in "Wane".

"Guilty one day met in a little inn of Auvergne a person who struck him as being the true type of Tartuffe. The person in question passed the 'ss' pronounced 'sh' and 'like' 'i' in a magnificent accent of 'Auvergne'. And Guilty, I do not know for what reason immediately concluded that this was the real Tartuffe and decided to interpret his role in the fashion of Auvergne."

"M. Guilty has also carefully avoided the comical side of the role. Until the end of the fourth act Moliere has brought into relief all the comic of the situation. He has taken pleasure in painting the character. He has extricated from the livery of Tartuffe and the folly of Org on all the sum of the comedy that they contain. The drama only bursts at the end of the fourth act and the flat-footed Tartuffe is discovered as a despicable adventurer."

"None of these nuances are in M. Guilty's acting. There are new gestures and an impassive visage. All the role is kept in dark colors. Tartuffe is a peasant who, in the house of Orgon, has not forgotten his brutal and rude manners. From this intensely comical comedy Moliere is banished! Tartuffe becomes a somber drama of M. Guilty."

Word comes from Helen Hester, press representative of Margaret Anglin, that after several weeks of negotiation Robert Warwick has arranged to close his starring season at the Fulton theater in time to rehearse to play with Margaret Anglin in "Hippolytus" of Euripides which is to be presented at the Greek theater in Berkeley on the evening of May 29.

Miss Anglin will play the role of Phaedra in the production. She started to study last summer. It is said, while in Greece in the "very places where Phaedra once lived and loved." Miss Keith Wakeman, the Shakespearean actress, who lives here, has been engaged to play the nurse.

FORTY SEASONS AGO TODAY
"Cad, the Tomboy," with Louise Sylvester, is at Baldwin's. "Arrah-Na-Pogue" will be presented there tomorrow night.

The balance of the cast will be made up from Miss Anglin's "Woman of Bronze" company and Calvin, Dorothy Johnson, Henry Mowbray, William Street, Arthur Fischer, Harry Barfoot and others. Singularly, Warwick will play next week, "The Great Divide" in which Miss Anglin and Henry Miller once divided honors.

EXITS AND ENTRANCES
Comes now Marc Klaw, to take the stand in the Klaw and Erlanger dances, suit and dress that he is a "latter" as Abe Erlanger averred under oath. On the contrary, sets forth Marc he spent his time making friends of the enemies Erlanger persisted in making.

Ethel Barrymore will play "Lady Teazle" and John Drew, Sir Peter, in the forthcoming revival of "The School for Scandal" by the Players Club.

Another important spring revival will be "The Rivals" with Francis Wilson as Bob Acres and Maclvn Arbuckle as Sir Anthony under the auspices of the Actors' Equity.

Sarah Bernhardt's books, pictures and furniture, many gifts from her admirers are to be sold at auction. Her library was particularly attractive, including many beautifully bound works, some with autograph dedications by Dumas, Flaubert, Rodand, and others.

"Red Light" is a new play by Norman Houston and Sam Forrest, is announced for production next season.

Matron to Return from The Islands

After three months in the Hawaiian Islands, Mrs. G. G. Jamieson will return from Honolulu to the bay region, having sailed May 3 on the San Francisco. Mrs. Jamieson is coming to California to join her daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Jamieson, a student at Miss Head's school in Berkeley, and her son, Billy Jamieson, who attends the Mount Tamalpais Military Academy.

Miss Margaret Gross, daughter of Mrs. George Gross of Bellevue avenue, will be hostess at luncheon to a dozen of her intimate friends tomorrow, and will be the after diversion. Later the guests will motor to the tea over which Miss Roberta Oliver will preside as hostess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Letts Oliver. Miss Gross is a student at Miss Ransom's.

Miss Marjorie Sanborn, daughter of Mrs. H. H. Sanborn, is to be hostess at an informal dance to be given at her home in El Camino Real tomorrow evening. The school set will be guests, many of whom are students at Miss Head's, from which Miss Sanborn will receive her diploma next month.

Miss Myrtle De Vaux is another of the debutantes set to entertain this month. She has sent out cards for a garden party May 25. More than a hundred of the school set will be guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman De Vaux.

SENIORS ARE HOSTS AT SCHOOL.
The students of the Holy Names college department were hostesses at an informal luncheon and bridge Tuesday, given in honor of the high school graduating class. The luncheon was served on the campus and bridge and mah jong were the diversions. Miss Eleanor Leonard presided over the tables.

The college girls entertained the entire school during the evening at a dancing party. Miss Grace May Feehan, president of the college department, was one of the popular girls presiding. The gymnasium banked in foliage and spring flowers was the setting for the affair.

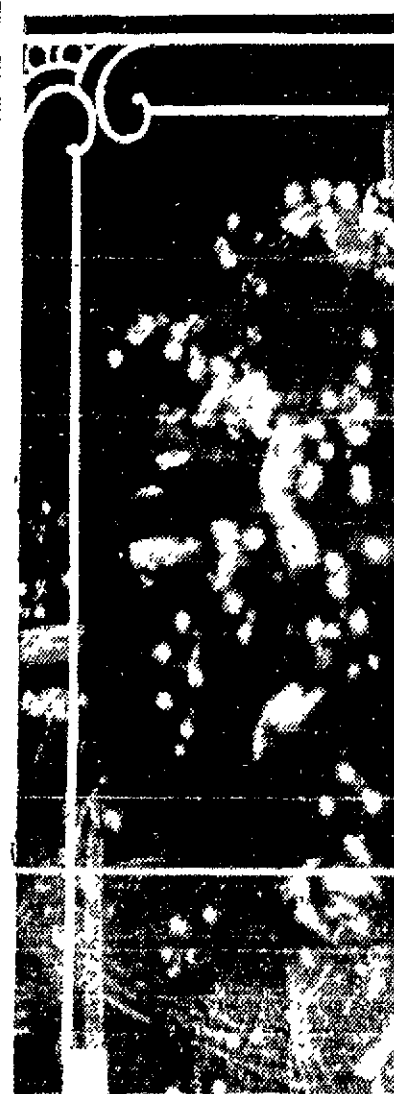

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carlisle Williams are leaving Tuesday for New York. To the regret of many friends, they have disposed of their home in Thousand Oaks. While east they will be guests of Mrs. Williams' mother-in-law, Mrs. William Williams in Beverly, Massachusetts. Upon their return to Berkeley in August, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will begin plans for another home.

FREE LOVE, THUGS IN HUNGARY OF BOLSHEVISM

NEW YORK, May 4.—The short-lived bolshevik regime in Hungary left in its wake an alarming increase in juvenile delinquency and generally corrupted the youth of the new kingdom, William Benard, councillor of the royal Hungarian police of Budapest, Hungary, declared before the International Police Conference today. He said that strenuous work by the police and the juvenile court had done much to remedy the harm done by the Reds.

"Bolshevism was in power in my country but four months," he said, "yet in that time it did much to undermine the moral standards of our children. Free love was openly taught and 20 or 30 boys, groups until then unknown in Hungary, were organized and committed wholesale thefts and burglaries."

REFS EXPORTING

GRAIN, ALTHOUGH MILLIONS STARVE

This Is Done to Impress the European Masses With Bolshevik Efficiency.

By FRANCIS MCCULLAGH

Special cable to the Oakland Tribune from Moscow, May 4.—Bolshevik anxiety over the famine in insular, as the Bolsheviks are now exporting grain, and recently made arrangements with a group of grain from Black Sea ports, saying to the Italian, from whom I have the story: "We are exporting grain for political purposes. It will make a good impression upon the masses in Europe if our export of grain lowers the price of bread."

Yet it is estimated that 1,000,000 persons are still short of bread in the Volga districts, and will be for the next three months.

Metropolitan Benjamin of Petrograd, and other bishops and priests have been arrested. Benjamin was shot, as was also Brusi-lev, the widow of General Brusilov. These two martyrs displayed a courage equal to that of the Catholic archbishop, though there was less protest from outside. Enter now the "living church."

One bishop and several priests hating Patriarch Tikhon visited him and induced him to resign, in order to save the lives of the priests imprisoned for resisting the decree of confiscation, though his resignation had no such result. Patriarch Tikhon delegated his duties to the Bishop of Yaroslavl. He, too, was arrested and then the reformers seized direction of the church, forming themselves a church council, with the Bishop Antonine presiding.

THE BISHOP ANTONINE. Antonine is an unbalanced character who several times has been under treatment for mental diseases. Indeed, it had been only a year before he entered into public disputations with Lenin, commissar for education, on the subject, "Was Christ the First Bolshevik?" Although Antonine said, "No," the social relations into which he was thus brought with the Bolshevik leaders turned his weak head, making him, innocently perhaps, a Soviet tool.

The Bishop of Nizhny-Novgorod joined Antonine and other bishops were consecrated in the new movement. Behind the scenes was Lvoff, a layman, formerly procurator of the Holy Synod under Kerensky, and also the priest, Vvedensky and Kravtchuk, both of Petrograd, and others. None is eminent for his piety or theological learning, and some are suspected of being spies for the Cheka. They constitute, in fact, the Bolshevik cell at the head of the Russian Church, with the control over its administrative machinery. Therefore the church is in the same position as the Russian people—both being possessed by the same demon, which cannot be destroyed without also injuring the bodies it dwells in.

IMP OF MISCHIEF. I know Lvoff personally. He was with Admiral Kolchak but could not get a job and therefore joined the Bolsheviks. He is the most mischievous man in Russia. The mix-up leading to the Kerensky-Korniloff quarrel was due to Lvoff's intrigues and misrepresentations. I also know, with his theatrical manner, inexactitude of verbiage, and his habit of dragging into his sermons quotations from Shaw, Nietzsche and Jack London. He is not a Luther nor a Calvin. The reform program is vague, but he declares: "Christ was a Bolshevik, and we must return to the Christianity of the first three centuries." Nevertheless, Vvedensky is not a Bolshevik, but he wants to keep the church apart from the Bolshevik government. He wants married bishops and services in modern Russia, instead of the old Slavonic.

Archbishop Yevdokim of Nizhny-Novgorod, a restless prelate of liberal views, served the Russian church in New York, and, curiously, like the Patriarch, also lived long in New York as a Russian priest, but he learned no English, leading a sequestered life of study and prayer. He impressed me when I saw him as if he had never left a Russian monastery, though he had traveled over America and Alaska, giving spiritual help to the Russians and not mixing in American life.

FOES OF PATRIARCH. But Yevdokim's religious convictions are unsettled, and not improved by his residence in New York. He is bitter against the Patriarch, whom he accuses of being reactionary, and besides, he wants a married clergy. Yevdokim and Vvedensky will testify at the ous and reactionary. I saw their written statement to that effect in Tikhon's dossier. They may appear personally in court. Yevdokim also wants a "return to primitive Christianity."

The reformers at Moscow called a general church council last year. It was well packed with symphizers of the Soviet assisting. This council reorganized the church, making each congregation into a should maintain a church and a priest. It formed also a new supreme church council consisting of three bishops, five priests and five laymen. This council being pro-Bolshevik, many monasteries have been closed and monastic celibacy has been abolished.

The reformers are now split into about six churches—the church of regeneration, the labor church, apostolic church, etc., some more Bolshevik than others. Hardly one of the reformers has been to the same church, but the Soviet government keeps the leaders together by insisting that they all work together as the church council.

INTELLECTUALS' RELIGION. The Moscow Cathedral and many churches in town and country districts are now in the hands of the "living church," but it is not a change in the service, save that they were simpler and in modern Russian. The intellectuals, who formerly were largely agnostic, are now religious, but they do not attend the reformed churches, frequenting instead monastic churches, which keep all the old ritual.

Religion is losing its grip on the common people in the towns, but such as attend church are indifferent if it be reformed or not. Throughout the country the priests readily join the reform, but continue their old observances.

There is no complete break on a vital point, as at the time of the English Reformation, and the leading dogmas, like incarnation and transubstantiation, are not attacked. The attitude of the Red leaders toward the reformed church differs. Lunacharsky, polished in literature, is skeptical but interested; but Trotsky, Radek and the majority of leaders regard the reformed church with even greater contempt than the old, and do not hide their contempt. In this they are intellectually honest, at least, without hypocrisy.

Dismissing the reformers, they are for a smashing frontal attack, and they want to crush every church as it with a steam roller, though were they craftier they could injure the church more and gain power of the peasant masses by using the church for Bolshevik purposes.

Lenin's contempt for the church is measureless, his first impressions having been gained from the priests on the Volga. His colleagues are in the same condition. Evidence of their complete misapprehension of the religious power of the West and America is to be found in their unbounded astonishment at the execution of Father Butchkevich.

The Red leaders are very sure that education will destroy religion. They regard religion as beneath contempt, never attacking it directly, though they incidentally jest in their speeches about God, uncorrupted bodies and saints. Hence the anti-religious campaign is left to a group of obscure atheists, Prof. Stepanov, et al. This differentiates the Russian reformation from the English where Henry VIII was a keen theologian.

The Reds do not persecute the reformed church, but permit the reformers to lecture as much as they like. Vvedensky and Kravtchuk, heavy, bullock-necked men, are continually lecturing in theaters and halls on vaguely religious subjects of popular appeal, like "Should Girls Marry?" "Was Christ Divine?" etc., drawing tremendous audiences.

At these lectures I saw the chiefs of the Cheka highly amused, for the speeches were made under Bolshevik auspices and contained nothing of which the Bolsheviks could object. On the contrary, there were flattering passages about Communism.

Some of these reformers flatter themselves they are doing good in keeping the church active, which otherwise would have been annihilated, but they are mistaken in believing that the Soviet will tolerate anything but materialism. In this best enemy to anything smacking of supernaturalism or mysticism, and Bolshevik control of the situation, to which the reformers do not object, makes the church's disappearance inevitable, if the Soviet lasts.

Nearly all independent-minded clergymen have been killed or exiled, and a large proportion of the remainder, tired out by persecution or burdened with large families, are joining in a compromise spirit. The church's collapse is probable, but something greater may arise from its ruins.

FEATHER RIVER

RAIL AID PLANNED

A group of Western Pacific railroad officials were here Monday following an inspection tour of the Feather River Canyon which started at Portola. The officials included President G. M. Levey, General Manager E. W. Mason, Chief Engineer T. J. Williams, Superintendent T. E. Coyle and Superintendent of Bridges G. Gilmore.

The expenditure of approximately half a million dollars in improvements in the Feather river canyon is contemplated by the railroad company, according to a statement made by the officials while here. Major projects included in the company's program consist of the replacement of a bridge west of Kettle with a new steel structure; the substitution of fills with concrete water ways for bridges at Intake and Berry Creek, and the replacement of a number of wooden culverts with concrete retaining walls. The company is preparing for a heavy fruit business this year.

GOUGED-OUT EYE

SOLVES MYSTERY

SHANGHAI, May 4.—(By the Associated Press).—Why two Chinese policemen were murdered under singular circumstances recently in what is called the Kiangwan district, of this city, remained a puzzle until by chance two days after the crime, it was ascertained that the eyes of both victims had been gouged out. This discovery cleared up the mystery for the Chinese authorities, who recognized an ancient criminal practice.

The two police had been bludgeoned to death at different times in the night and their bodies, one a half mile from the other, had been left near the Shanghai-Woosung railway line. They had not been robbed and their carabines were found with the bodies. A foreign inquirer, questioning a Chinese police official about the murders, was answered briefly, "Police see too much," the official said.

Be Careful What You

Wash Your Child's

Hair With

If you want to keep your child's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multifid coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as it can not possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Multifid in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub the Multifid in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather is so good, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and soft, bright, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get Multifid coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few bottles will last every one in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multifid—Advertisement.

her, "and anyone has a right to defend his character."

Director Fred Campbell arose to his feet.

"You've got to play fair," he informed President Hatch. "You play the game with us right or there'll be something doing. Mrs. Ormsby is dead right."

"It takes years to build a name," said Attorney Robinson, "but it can be ruined quickly. I understand this hearing concerns a man's good name."

"I object," said Director Ormsby. Attorney Herman Walker, a member of a North Oakland Improvement club, also objected. He agreed that Director Ormsby's resolution about the bonds was not a charge against Hunter's reputation.

ORIGINAL ORMSBY
RESOLUTION READ.

The original Ormsby resolution about the bonds was then read. Campbell and Walker objected.

"I will concede that you have a standing objection to everything," said Robinson.

"Why not?" asked Campbell.

"You've got the crowd with you. We're handicapped."

Robinson then introduced in testimony his voluminous reports of all the bonds and baby bonds which the schools had bought and which were kept in the department's safe deposit vaults. Many were taken out by the various schools. Some were sold. But the bonds of each school were relentlessly traced. Robinson then showed that the school bond campaign of 1919 left a $220.41 deficit for the school officials to face, as they could not pay campaign expenses from public moneys. He asserted that Board of Education members paid $276 out of their own pockets, and that 31 schools collected $1804.15.

"I object," said Walker. "All this rambling testimony is just to influence public opinion."

"I hope it will influence public opinion," said Robinson. "If not, God help the town!"

Robinson then delved into the bonds again, showing that nine schools took their Liberty Bonds out of safe-deposit, and in most cases sold them and sent the proceeds to help out the deficit.

Campbell said he still believed that the school heads took bonds, spent the money, and then covered up by sending school department funds to cover the amount of the bonds. Robinson asserted again that Hunter had nothing to do with any of the bonds.

Robinson then wound up his figures, showing that every bond of the $1550-worth was accounted for by written statements except one $56 bond, whose written report is forthcoming.

"This," said Robinson, "reduces to zero any claim that the bonds are not accounted for."

Later, during a hot argument about the particular charge "insinuated against Hunter, Robinson and the others agreed that it concerned allegations of "indirection of official conduct."

Floyd Gray, former president of the board of education, and head of the school department during the 1919 campaign, was then placed on the witness stand.

CAMPBELL DEMANDS TO KNOW CHARGES.

"Is this a trial?" demanded Campbell. "What are the charges? What is it all about?"

Gray said he didn't know.

"I was subpoenaed to come here," said Gray. "I'd like to know who sent for me?"

"I did," said Director Ormsby.

Gray took the witness stand. He stated that the finance committee of the bond campaign sell the children's liberty bonds, but did not know who it was, and believed that no one could consider such a thing.

PACKED HOUSE IS CHARGED.

"Don't you know it was proposed by the superintendent of schools?" asked Attorney Walker, "and he had to drop it?"

"Your question," said Attorney Robinson, "discloses your whole scheme. It is your plan to get Hunter regardless of anything."

Various minor questions were asked Gray, and a short session on the witness stand was taken by Lloyd Barzee, former school business manager, who answered questions about various doing in 1919.

Campbell criticized the proceedings.

"The lobby is packed by Hunter's friends," he said. "This is a deliberate attempt to discredit us."

"That is not so," yelled a woman

"There's an example of a packed lobby," said Campbell.

"Sit down," said Director Ormsby to Director Campbell.

"It is a sorry spectacle," said Campbell, "when Mrs. Ormsby brings on her witnesses and proceed with her case. It is a class hearing. It's a crime. A majority of the audience is here to discredit us."

Some of the audience began to hiss Campbell.

"There are only two things that hiss," said Campbell, "a serpent and a coward. I move we adjourn."

"I hope we adjourn to some day before election," said Robinson.

"I want to make a statement," said Director Daisy Short, who had been silent throughout the hearing. "She had a typewritten statement in defense of Hunter."

"I object to any state sent," said Campbell. "We want no statement. I move we adjourn."

President Hatch asked Campbell to relent. Campbell insisted that no statement was desired.

"Under those circumstances," said Hatch, "we will adjourn till 3 tomorrow afternoon."

STATEMENT OF MRS. SHORT NOT ACCEPTED.

Mrs. Short's statement, which was denied acceptance, was as follows:

"The attack against Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter at last Monday's board meeting is deplorable and absolutely unwarranted. It is, in my judgment, an attack on an honorable and extraordinarily capable official who has given and who is giving super-educational service to the children and parents of the city of Oakland, where with a contraption like that."

"It must be apparent to all thinking persons in this community that the attack, as made, has for its purpose the outing from office of as capable a superintendent of schools as this city could possibly secure. Why?"

REASON FOR FIGHT GIVEN BY STATEMENT.

"What is back of the constant effort to embarrass and harass Mr. Hunter? Why the constant effort to out him? Why is this man, recognized as one of America's greatest educators, a former president of the National Education Association, the man who has brought the Oakland public school system to the point where it is second to none in the United States in efficiency constantly attacked by a few small-minded politicians? Why is Superintendent Hunter unsatisfactory to this handful of demagogues? Any thinking person knows the answer!"

"Is there a man or woman in the city of Oakland who can step forward and prove that Mr. Hunter has not made good as superintendent of schools during the six years he has been in that position? Here is a man who is universally respected by teachers, parents, children, and men and women prominent in all walks of life—but, and quite naturally, the cheap, self-seeking politicians do not like him. Of course not!"

"He can't be used for any purpose mimical to the interests of the school children and citizens of the city of Oakland by designing, ambitious, or corrupt politicians."

"DAISIE L. SHORT."

A letter affirming their confidence in Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter was drawn up and signed by Oakland high school teachers at a meeting held at the school during the noon hour yesterday. Charges that Hunter has been made the object of an unwarranted attack and that libelous insinuations have been made against his character, were embodied in the letter, which follows:

Dear Mr. Hunter:

It is evident that a pointed and utterly unwarranted attack is being made upon you and your administration. For political purposes, facts have been misrepresented, truth misconstrued, worthy motives distorted, and libelous insinuations made against your character.

We, the teachers of the Oakland High school, wish to assure you that we condemn this unjustified attack. We reaffirm our confidence in your integrity, and pledge for a continuance of our co-operation in the great work in which the Oakland public schools are engaged under your able leadership.

The Oakland police have been asked to institute a search for Mrs. Lillian Hills Clough of 1522 Market street, this city, and her 2 1/2-year-old son, who left home together at 7:30 o'clock last evening, presumably to go down town and who have not been seen by relatives or friends since that time. LEOPARD CAUSES

EXCITEMENT IN MANDALAY STREET

Wild Beast From Jungle Is Finally Killed Before Doing Damage

MANDALAY, Burma, May 4.—(AP) Associated Press).—Wide-spread excitement has been created among Mandalay residents by the discovery of a full grown leopard hiding under a house in one of the most crowded quarters. The beast ranged at large for a short time, but was shot by an officer of the Irrawaddy Flotilla company before doing any damage. How this leopard found its way into the city is not definitely known. Some thought it came from the neighborhood of Amarapura, where there is a large area of thick jungle. Another theory was that it boarded one of the Irrawaddy fuel steamers which tie up alongside the bank at night, and was thus brought into Mandalay.

COMMON IN JUNGLE.
It had been more than ten years since a leopard penetrated into Mandalay, though one was killed only eight miles from the city last summer. Leopards are still common in the thick jungle which abounds in every part of Burma, but usually confine their operations to the cattle of villagers. In 1901 a leopard appeared in Bassein, in Lower Burma, and killed and wounded several people before it was shot.

Tigers, also, are still common in some parts of Burma. Less than a year ago a tiger was killed only fifteen miles from Rangoon, a city of 540,000. It has not been many years since a tiger entered the city of Rangoon and was found about a third of the way up to pagoda. It had climbed up in the night and was unable to get down and had to be shot from the pagoda platform.

Wild elephants are protected by law and are still to be found in some sections of the country. One member of a large herd was killed in Rangoon. Domesticated elephants are used extensively in the lumber camps for moving heavy timber.

Jungle cats and deer remain abundant, and often enter the towns. Recently a large jungle cat was killed in Rangoon where it had chased a domestic cat into the interior of a house.

HENPECKED CLUB

TAKES OUTING

YORKSHIRE, May 4.—(By Associated Press).—The members of the famous Yorkshire organization known as the "Henpecked Club" had their "once a year outing" recently.

To an isolated hamlet, miles to the west of Halifax, the president of the club invited his "fellow bondsmen of the scrubbing brush and pail" to gather, and as every member was loyal to his pledge of secrecy, the "henpecked" were not disturbed by the "henpeckers."

The club is counted as the oldest in existence. Adam being claimed as the first member. Every year new members are enrolled, but applicants have to pass a severe test providing absolute proof that on every day in the year ex-

FOUNDATION BIDS

Five Local and City Contractors Estimate on First Work on Building.

PETALUMA, May 4.—The trustees of the Petaluma Hotel Company met this morning when bids were opened for the completion of the excavation and concrete foundation for the new hotel building. Five bids were received for the concrete work; one from Petaluma, three from San Francisco, and one from Oakland. Work on this structure is to begin immediately. The next step will be the awarding of contracts for the plumbing, carpenter, electric, lumber and mill work. Architect Fredrick Whitton will be in charge of the construction of the big hostelry.

Earl Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wavert, who was mysteriously attacked at the family home April 8, has so far recovered that he was able to leave the hospital. He seems to be rational in every way and his ultimate recovery assured.

At a meeting of the directors and members of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night a program was partly arranged covering the Sonoma county fair and egg day features. It was decided to open the affair with a grand parade with many artistic and industrial features, and in point of interest and story to eclipse anything ever staged in Petaluma on similar occasions. President Hopkins, also chairman of the general fair committee, reported that to date nearly $3000 had been turned in toward the celebration fund. D. B. Walls reported on the plans for the National poultry exhibit in connection with the fair. The Sonoma County Farm Bureau poultry department to take full charge of the exhibit. The horse races were referred to Phil Varner to investigate and report back to the committee. The play "Princess Petaluma," written to music by Clara Ivanovich, was discussed as one of the features. The matter of advertising, premium lists and exhibit space was referred to the fair committee.

Mrs. A. L. Phillips, president of the Petaluma Woman's Club, Mrs. W. L. Sales and Mrs. James Bloom of this city are attending the State Federation of Women's Clubs at Eureka this week.

The wedding of Miss Marie Horwege and Ivan McAllister, formerly of this city, now of Japan, will take place at Trinity Church, San Francisco, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Deane the pastor will officiate. Many relatives and friends of the young couple will attend from this city.

The delegation of Petalumans who joined the Mexico excursion arranged by the San Francisco chamber of commerce, arrived home Sunday night somewhat tanned and tired, but reported having had a most enjoyable trip. While absent

NIP GEMS

SLIGHTLY MIXED

A certain Houston racing man was married several months ago. He also is the proud possessor of a fine two-year-old filly that has made 5½ furlongs in 1:09 and he expects her to do better at the next races. He has named the filly after his wife and both of them are dear to his heart. A Post man, who ran across him yesterday, found him quite willing to talk.

"Yes," he said, "I am the happiest man in Texas. Bessie and I are keeping house now and getting quite well settled down. That filly of mine is going to do wonders for Bessie takes as much interest in her as I do. You know I have named her for my wife. She is a thoroughbred. I tell you it's fine to see her trotting around at home."

"Who, the filly?"
"No, my wife. She's going to bet twelve even pairs of kid gloves on Bessie next time she goes in. I have but one objection to her. She goes with her head on one side and is cross-legged, and tears off her shoes."

"No, what's the matter with you?" The filly. It pleases me very much to have my friends inquire about Bessie. She is getting to be quite a favorite. I had to work hard to get her, too. She trots double without a break."

"The filly, you mean?"
"No, my wife. I took Bessie out driving with the filly yesterday. Bessie's a daisy. She's a little bit of a shoulder, and a trifle stiff in one leg, but her wind is all right. What do you think of her back?"

"Really?—I—I never had the pleasure of meeting your wife, but I have no doubt."

"What are you talking about?" I mean the filly. The filly comes off just on the anniversary of our marriage. The races are going to be a big thing. You know we have been married just a year. I expect Bessie to do wonders. There's a new-comer going to be here, that we are looking for with much interest. You must really come and see our first event."

"I—I—I really, it would be indelicate—you must really excuse me. I never saw anything of the kind. I—I—I—"

KNEW WHAT WAS NEEDED.

A gentleman from Ohio, who has come South on a hunting trip, arrived in Houston rather late one night last week, and on his way to a hotel stopped in a certain saloon to get a drink. A colored man was behind the bar temporarily and served him with what he wanted. The gentleman had his shotgun in its case, and he laid upon the bar while waiting.

"Is there any game about here?" he asked, after paying for his drink.
"I guess dey is, boss," said the colored man, looking doubtfully at the gun on the counter, "but you jest wait a minute, boss, til I fixes you up in better shape."

He opened a drawer and handed the gentleman a six-shooter.

"You take dis, boss," he said. "Dat der gun os yours am too long for you to get quick action in de game what we hab here. Now jest go up dem steps, and knock free times on de doah to your left."

CAMP AT DOLLAR

MARYSVILLE, May 4.—Marysville has been offered a municipal mountain camp for $1 per year by Mrs. Charles Falck of Woodleaf, who has offered the city two sites for the proposed municipal camping grounds. Mrs. Falck has added to the Golchette place, which is about two miles west of Woodleaf, her hotel property and the large acreage around it. She points out that her place has the advantage of being already improved with buildings. Besides the hotel there is a stage barn that can be converted into a garage, a dance hall and a natural site for a lake where swimming could be indulged in. Mrs. Falck says she will tent the place to the city of Marysville for $1 per year.

Strawberries Late, Good at Marysville

MARYSVILLE, May 4.—"Local strawberries are coming into the market up to weight and are the best berries I have seen in the state," was the declaration of Deputy Sealer of Weights and Measures J. H. Whittle, who has filed his report with the Board County Clerk W. M. Strief. Two violations of the berry pack have been reported to the state office of sealer of weights and measures for correction as they were not of local shipment. He announces he has inspected 6,859 pieces of equipment during April. Of this number 55 pieces were sealed after correction; 573 sealed without correction; 1 condemned and 2 condemned and re-inspected; 76 crates of strawberries inspected and 8,000 milk bottles tested.

WOODLAND NEWS

WOODLAND, May 4.—Eighteen boys of the agricultural class of the Woodland high school will journey late in May, accompanied by their instructor, Luther E. DuBois, to Coloma, above Placerville, to view the spot where gold was first discovered in California. They will visit farms and orchards of the district on the return trip.

Henry Gorman, Yolo farmer, has inaugurated a search into the northern districts of the United States and probably into British Columbia in the hope to locate his fourteen-year-old son James, who left home last Christmas when chided because he was a truant from school. The boy last visited a former companion in Red Bluff and said he was going as far as he could north.

Frank H. Good, operator of many freight trucks in this district has been arrested and charged with operating overloaded trucks over the state and county highways.

Frank Farish business man of this city, who suffered from lung trouble after an attack of influenza, has completely recovered his health in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Graham of Winter, have returned from Monticello, Napa county, where they participated in a family reunion with Mrs. Graham's people recently. The gathering has been an annual custom of the children and grandchildren of the late Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Goshing, pioneer of Monticello.

BRENTWOOD

BRENTWOOD, May 4.—The musical given at the baseball park Monday afternoon in observation of Music Week by the Brentwood, Deer Valley, Lone Tree and Knightsen schools was well attended. The crowning of the queen, Virginia Grigair, was prettily carried out and the songs and musical numbers by the pupils were well presented. Professor Forbes, Miss Beatrice Swift and Miss Kate Murphy were in charge of the local school, Miss May L. Shaw and Ella Pierce for Knightsen and Miss Alfred Lutz for Lone Tree. Miss George Geddes, Miss Alfred Lutz and Mrs. Beatrice Swift presided at the piano.

act comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen," sponsored by the senior high school students, directed by Mr. J. W. Roberts, did not

Turlock Election

On Bonds Delayed

TURLOCK, May 4.—The $20,000 bond election was delayed for another two weeks when two of the city trustees, G. P. Pendergraft and J. W. Roberts, did not attend the meeting of the board. The issue for which the ordinance was to have been passed called for the building of public baths.

For the same reason the introduction of an additional ordinance authorizing a second bond election for $30,000 for the acquisition of the old high school site was laid over until the next session.

The sale of the old high school site was automatically deferred when no bids were received by the board of trustees of the high school at their last meeting. The high school trustees called a meeting for next Monday night to consider the best course to follow with regard to the disposition of the site.

Two committees, J. V. Baker, R. J. Stone and Rev. Gottfried Stone, representing the Ministerial Union, were present at the meeting and college on the old grounds.

STRIKE SPREAD

QUINCY, Cal., May 4.—Five detachments of Industrial Workers of the World, numbering 20 men each, have been dispatched from the main camp at Quincy to strike propaganda among lumber employees of Plumas, Sierra and Butte counties, it was learned yesterday.

Approximately fifty I W W canvassers applied to business houses and residences here yesterday for financial assistance. In nearly every instance they were refused and ordered "to clear out."

The strike spread into scattered districts yesterday. The Feather River Lumber Company was forced to suspend after another walkout yesterday. Twelve woodsmen also were reported to have quit the woods camp of the Mutual Lumber Corporation.

Temblor Recorded Upon Seismograph
CLAYLAND, O., May 4.—The seismograph in St. Ignace college here recorded an earthquake at 11:43 o'clock this morning, and a second shock at 11:47 a. m. Father Frederick L. Odenbach, in charge of the observatory, announced at noon today.

Father Odenbach estimated the distance of the shock at between 2000 and 3000 miles from here and on this continent.

FILIPINOS ARE FAVORABLE TO AMERICAN RULE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—Philippine mothers do raise their boys to be soldiers. This is the statement of Brigadier-General Frank R. McCoy, aid to Governor-General Leonard Wood of the Philippine Islands, who arrived here yesterday aboard the Pacific Mail liner President.

There are no soldiers on the islands asserts McCoy. He also indicated the significance of the fact that the most of the soldiers serving the United States in the islands are natives and that a general good feeling toward this country prevails throughout the islands.

"The Filipinos are a self-respecting people willing and able to fight for their liberty," declared McCoy. "When we speak of Filipinos we mean the Christian natives who are the most numerous. As for the non-Christian tribes in Luzon, in Mindanao and in the Sulu islands they look upon the army as their most friend."

"They were originally governed after the American occupation by army officers. These men ruled them wisely, with that personal sort of government which is best adapted to the wants of simple peoples."

"Formerly a colonel of cavalry General McCoy served during the World War with the rank of brigadier. General and was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal."

That Adam Kraft, former Alameda resident, instructed him to draw a will in which Kraft left his son, Alfred Kraft, and his daughter, Mrs. Elsa G. Gregory, $150 each and the bulk of his $6000 estate to Mrs. Emma G. Boehmer of Alameda was the declaration of Henry Schneider, 1133 Park street, a witness called yesterday afternoon in a contest brought to break the will.

Schneider, a notary public, told of being called to the Boehmer home by Kraft and asked to write out the will. He said that he called Kraft's attention to the small legacy given his children and that Kraft replied:

"I would like to leave them nothing at all. They have taken most of my property from me as it is."

Mrs. Boehmer is seeking to have the will probated and is being opposed by the son and daughter, who have filed a contest. They allege that Kraft was of unsound mind when he made his will and that he was under the influence and domination of Mrs. Boehmer.

The contest is set for a noon session of court before Superior Judge E. C. Robinson and at the conclusion of the session was continued for a week.

CHICKEN SOUP
THERMOPOLIS, Wyo., May 4.—Every day a million gallons of chicken soup goes flowing down Big Horn river. It is the finest kind of chicken soup in the world, according to those who have tried it, and is ready to serve at all times, at a temperature of 135 degrees Fahrenheit.

A Thermopolis citizen, who visits the Thermal Springs here daily and has been in the habit of experimenting with the mineral hot water, is authority for the statement that when a little salt and pepper are added to the hot water, it tastes so much like chicken soup that nobody can tell the difference.

Mutual Insurance Companies Meet
RIVERSIDE, May 4.—The annual convention of the state association of county mutual fire insurance companies opened here yesterday with delegates from seventeen counties in attendance.

Lodi and Sacramento are seeking next year's convention, with Lodi the favorite, according to officers of the association.

Hawaiian Capital's Postoffice Often Receives Queer Assortment
HONOLULU, May 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The spirit and soul of the Far East come over the Honolulu postoffice as one of the city's cosmopolitan position at "the cross-roads of the Pacific" is revealed one day on which a vessel arrives from the Orient.

Delegates from the Philippines, including a man down, strange musical instruments, pork, beef, nuts, dried fish, herbs for medicine, jade mandarin coats, the finest ancient eggs, porcelain, skin, and other material for soups—this is a typical list of items that may be found in any mail from Japan, China and the Philippines according to Postmaster D. L. Macdonald.

The miscellaneous packages also bring with them a tremendous amount of actual work for at least 50 per cent of all the letters and packages in a mail from the Orient are addressed solely in the language of their origin, which must be translated into English before they can be distributed for instance, out of a recent mail containing 12,000 letters, 6000 were addressed only in Japanese characters. This necessitates the employment of Japanese, Filipino, Chinese and Korean clerks.

The mails between Honolulu, the Orient and the South Seas are growing in size, according to figures compiled by Postmaster Macdonald. In 1921, all classes of mail to China, Japan and Manila aggregated 4,064 bags, and had risen to 3,332 in 1922, an increase of 128.

New Military Head For Stanford Named
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 4.—Major W. H. Collins, field artillery, will succeed Major Leroy F. Collins as head of the department of military training and professor of military science and tactics at Stanford next year, according to a report from the office of the president this morning. Major Collins has been detached from duty at Stanford to attend the general staff college at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. His tendency at the staff college has already been delayed several times as the result of the university's desire to keep him at Palo Alto as instructor.

ORIENTAL MAIL REACH HONOLULU AS SMELLY MASS

Hawaiian Capital's Postoffice Often Receives Queer Assortment

HONOLULU, May 4.—(By Associated Press.)—The spirit and soul of the Far East come over the Honolulu postoffice as one of the city's cosmopolitan position at "the cross-roads of the Pacific" is revealed one day on which a vessel arrives from the Orient.

Delegates from the Philippines, including a man down, strange musical instruments, pork, beef, nuts, dried fish, herbs for medicine, jade mandarin coats, the finest ancient eggs, porcelain, skin, and other material for soups—this is a typical list of items that may be found in any mail from Japan, China and the Philippines according to Postmaster D. L. Macdonald.

The miscellaneous packages also bring with them a tremendous amount of actual work for at least 50 per cent of all the letters and packages in a mail from the Orient are addressed solely in the language of their origin, which must be translated into English before they can be distributed for instance, out of a recent mail containing 12,000 letters, 6000 were addressed only in Japanese characters. This necessitates the employment of Japanese, Filipino, Chinese and Korean clerks.

The mails between Honolulu, the Orient and the South Seas are growing in size, according to figures compiled by Postmaster Macdonald. In 1921, all classes of mail to China, Japan and Manila aggregated 4,064 bags, and had risen to 3,332 in 1922, an increase of 128.

Hawaii Language Schools Regulated

HONOLULU, May 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—Governor Farrington yesterday signed the bill designed to regulate the alien language schools of the Hawaiian Islands. The law is constructed along the same lines as the regulation promulgated by the territorial school department which the Hawaiian courts decided was invalid.

The measure provides that alien language schools may be conducted only on licenses issued by the board of education. It also provides for a fee of $1 from each pupil annually to be used in defraying the expenses of supervising the schools. The new law does not permit a child to attend an alien language school until it has first completed two grades in the American public schools.

Declares Hot Applications Failed to Relieve Neuritis, But Tanlac Overcame It Entirely—Health Fine Now.

Harry J. Riley, in an interview at this office, 1925 Hearst Building, San Francisco, the other day, gave out the following facts regarding the benefits he has derived from the Tanlac treatment:

"Tanlac has been of such wonderful benefit to me that I regard it as a duty as well as a pleasure to recommend it. I was suffering from an attack of neuritis that was not only painful, but terribly annoying. This neuritis, which was in my arm, was caused by over-exercising and lifting too much. I was afraid it might spread over my whole body. There were constant pains all through my arm and at night it hurt so bad I could hardly sleep a wink. I used liniments and hot applications until my arm was nearly cooked, and, in fact, tried everything, including baths, but could get no relief. Anyone would have to have neuritis to know how I suffered.

"One day a friend told me to get a bottle of Tanlac. Well, I took his advice, and the treatment helped me from the very start, and has put an end to the neuritis completely. It also acted as a wonderful all-around tonic and made me feel much better in every way. I am enjoying the best of health and there is no hesitancy in recommending Tanlac to anyone. Tanlac is for sale by all druggists. Accept no substitutes."

Sneak Car Stopped: Yields Much Booze

ALBANY, May 4.—Eighty gallons of wine were confiscated while three persons were placed under arrest last night charged with transporting liquor, when an automobile driven by Alfred Roberts, 1722 Thirty-ninth avenue, Oakland, was stopped, for speeding. Marshal John Glavinovich, who stopped the car at Main street and San Pablo avenue, discovered the liquor and placed under arrest, with the driver, George Mason, 587 Eighth street, and Eddie Ward, 1815 Tenth street, both of Oakland. All three were released last night on $500 bail each pending their trial. The men admitted purchasing the wine in Calistoga.

LABOR FAVORS BUILDING TUBE UNDER ESTUARY

Council Head Says Bore Will Save Money For Workingman.

Union labor today came out in favor of the bond issue for a tube under the estuary which will be before the people at the polls on Tuesday.

The organization spoke through James Shea, president of the Labor Council, who declared that labor should support the tube bonds because its construction means that more money will go to Alameda county workmen than if a bridge is erected. Shea said that in the case of a bridge 80 cents out of every dollar would go outside the county and state, and that with a tube 98 cents out of every dollar would be spent at home. He said in part:

"The endorsement of the Central Labor Council of the project will no doubt be heeded by the thousands of Union men and women of Alameda county.

"How many laboring men have been late to work in the morning because of the bridge being open for some scow with long sticks to get through. And some of these laboring men have been injured in the region of the pocketbook every time this happens. But with a tube under the water there would be no interruptions in travel at all. "A tube will settle this matter for all time to come. The water above the tube will be used for docks and wharves, bring money in for wharfage and tolls. A tidy sum will be realized in this manner.

"So be sure men of labor, go to the polls Tuesday, cast a ballot for the tube. There is nothing else quite as important as this matter."

Booze and Injury Received, Is Plea

John Hardy claim: he was served two drinks of Jackass brandy in a West Oakland resort, then struck on the lip and kicked out by the bartender, Neil Corrigan, in a suit against the latter for $299 damages pending before Justice Harry W. Pulcifer. Hardy claims the blow on the lip caused a growth which made a surgical operation necessary.

An entirely different version of the affair was given by Corrigan who denied any liquor was served and denied the blow or the kick, explaining that he merely forced Hardy to leave the place because he made uncomplimentary remarks about a neighbor of his.

Though Michael Healy was sitting but eight feet away during the mixup he claimed ignorance of what occurred, saying he was feeling ill at the time and did not notice anything. Justice Pulcifer continued the case until May 9 for further evidence.

Private Capital May Finish Melones Dam

OAKDALE, May 4.—If the Oakland and South San Joaquin irrigation districts do not wish to proceed with Melones dam and reservoir project, other large financial interests not connected with the existing power companies are ready to step in, build the dam and power plant and sell water and power to the districts. Director R. O. Castle told the Oakland board at its last meeting. He declared the capitalists offered better rates than any of the power concerns now operating.

Eczema Torture

is one of the curses of modern life which none escape, rich or poor. It can always be told by the thickened, cracked or scaly skin or weeping sores from which ooze a clear liquid which causes an intolerable itching, and makes life an itching misery, especially at night.

The old style method of treating the disease was greasy, sticky salves and soaps, simply covering over the skin, thereby giving the parasites a better chance to live underneath. The treatment of eczema has of late undergone a complete and radical change, and so, instead of treating the surface only, a clean, cooling, penetrating lotion may now be applied, which gets to the bottom of the sores and kills the germs, stopping the itching instantly and causing an entirely new skin to grow.

Eczemine

Such a lotion is Eczemine, the newly discovered specific for eczema and skin diseases. Good also for skin diseases and barbers' itch and as an antiseptic shaving lotion. $1 and $2 bottles. Sold and recommended by OSGOOD BROS.

Flowers' Look Tells Illness Of Aged Donor

Alone at her home in East Oakland, an elderly woman is dying who once called her acquaintances legion and who now is mourned only by the members of that fourth estate of which she was once a part.

A quarter of a century ago the name of Josephine Galloway was one to be conjured with by society men and women and those struggling to gain a foothold on the upper rungs of the ladder of social distinction.

Her position as society editor on a local paper gave her unwritten rights that made her a person of prominence. Then, twenty years ago, she passed out of the picture to make room for new blood—pass 1 out of the social picture, but not beyond the ken of her fellow-workers.

For two decades Mrs. Galloway has made a daily pilgrimage to the downtown business district making the rounds of all the newspaper offices and press-rooms and bearing a single flower for each man and woman engaged in gathering and handling the news of the day.

These buds have been from her small garden at her home at 538 Eighteenth street, where she edited a periodical known as "Our Young People," on the meager profits of which she eked out a hazardous existence.

Recently the visits of Mrs. Galloway stopped. The lapsels of the coats of newspaper people went blossomless. Investigation followed. Mrs. Galloway is seriously ill.

BEAUTIFUL LADIES! BALD-HEADED GENTLEMEN! — Are you availing yourself of the opportunities offered through the "Personal Service" column? It is found on the first Classified "Want Ad" page. For the ladies we have also a column of modistes and needlewomen, members of whose professions are bound to be found indispensable from time to time.

COURT WON'T LET STOKES ADD TO CO-RESPONDENTS

Increase in Alimony Pending Trial, From $18,000 to $30,000 Denied.

NEW YORK, May 4. — W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy hotel man and realty operator, today lost in the appellate division of the state court, his fight to be permitted to amend the petition in his divorce suit against Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, so that he could name additional co-respondents, evidence concerning whom he claims recently was discovered.

The court, however, reversed a decision by Supreme Court Justice Gay increasing Mrs. Stokes' alimony pending the trial from $18,000 to $30,000. The appellate division ruling on amending the petition affirmed Justice Gay's decision.

$3500 EXPENSES ASKED.
CHICAGO, May 4. — A plea has been made by Mrs. W. E. D. Stokes, wife of W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy New York hotel proprietor, for the court to grant her an expense account of $3500 that she took Mrs. Nell Rose Miller, colored, to New York, and there personally deny charges made here yesterday by Mrs. Miller in a deposition taken in connection with a rehearing of divorce action instituted by Mr. Stokes.

Mrs. Miller, formerly a waitress in a New York tea room, before Julian C. Rye, appointed commissioner by Judge Joseph E. Newberger, of the New York Supreme Court, testified she had served lunches to Mrs. Stokes and Edgar T. Wallace, in the latter's apartment over the tea room. Mrs. Stokes, the former waitress testified, often opened the door to admit her, clad only in flimsy garments. Wallace was named by Stokes in his original suit.

Two pictures of Mrs. Stokes were identified by the witness, but when Theodore Shanley, attorney for Mrs. Stokes, handed her forty photographs, some of the wealthy hotel man's wife, the witness became confused and declined to identify any of them.

Mrs. Stokes did not appear at the hearing, and later asserted she believed that Mrs. Miller had been coached.

FOREST ROADS

The projects named by Redington were as follows:

Crescent City Grants Pass road, $15,000; Kern River Canyon road, $150,000; Big Bear Valley road, $75,000; Murphy's Big Tree road, $150,000; Stanislaus National Forest, $150,000; Yuba Pass road, $143,000.

BUREAU OF INFORMATION

"Is there a newspaper published at Vineyard Haven on the island of Martha's Vineyard?"
No. The only newspaper on the island is The Vineyard Gazette, a weekly, published at Edgartown.

"What federal department makes examination of food to determine whether it conflicts with the food and drug act?"
The Bureau of Chemistry of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

"What are some of the larger irrigation projects in the United States?"
The Salt River project in Arizona; the Yuma project in Arizona; the Uncompahgre, Colorado; the Boise, Idaho, project; the North Platte, in Nebraska, and Wyoming;

the Truckee-Carson, Nevada, and the Yakima in Washington.

"When was the Monroe Doctrine declared? What events brought about the declaration?"
The Monroe Doctrine dates from a declaration of December 2, 1823, by James Monroe, President of the United States, in one of his annual messages to Congress. The Holy Alliance, formed by Russia, Prussia and Austria in 1815, threatened, it was alleged, to recover former colonial possessions in South America. Russia also disputed American Pacific Coast boundaries. The Monroe Doctrine grew out of this situation.

Is prohibition in force in Sweden?
Sweden does not prohibit liquor traffic. The present system of restricted liquor traffic known as the "system," has been in force since 1914. All wine and spirits containing more than 3.6 per cent alcohol are sold through the Wine and Spirits Central. This organization has bought out all the private wine merchants in Sweden and it alone has the right to manufacture and sell liquor wholesale. The Wine and Spirits Central sells to local retail dealers, who supply hotels, cafes and individuals. An individual can purchase liquor only on a "motbok," a booklet with detachable slips which the purchaser must sign each time he buys liquor. The maximum ration is four liters (a little more than four quarts) a month.

"Are there any data on the results of Sweden's liquor laws?"
It is said that liquor consumption has been decreased by more than 27 per cent since 1921. Arrests for drunkenness have decreased 49 per cent. Habitual drunkards and persons who abuse drink have been denied liquor. One of the purposes of the Bratt law is to eliminate private interest in liquor manufacture and sale. Under the system now in force the government derives a revenue of 110,000,000 crowns from the traffic.

"Was Spain in the League of Nations?"
Spain is now a member of the League of Nations.

WAR OVER CARMEL
POSTAL BUILDING
TITLE SETTLED

T. W. Morgan Is Declared the Owner in Settlement
Out of Court.

CARMEL, May 4.—One of the most complex and widely discussed civil cases to take place in recent months in Carmel has been the battle over the new Carmel postoffice building which has been settled out of court with T. W. Morgan Jr. being proclaimed the owner. The parties in the case were T. W. Morgan of Carmel, J. A. Oakes of Santa Cruz and W. R. Abbott of Pebble Beach.

Morgan originally owned the land for the new postoffice and entered into a contract with T. A.

to construct the building. Also Morgan made a deed of the premises to Oakes to secure for the builder any necessary money. And Oakes gave an agreement in writing to return at the completion of the building this property to Morgan. Later Morgan relinquished his right, title and interest in the building to Oakes, but he claimed of keeping Oakes out of difficulties which he was entering with the Carmel Sanitary Board, and to this fact he had two witnesses. Oakes, however, claimed that it was a legitimate transfer.

Before the building was finished, Oakes sold it to William Abbott of Pebble Beach and also raised a new building, using the north wall of the postoffice as a party wall. Through his attorney, Hudson, Martin & Jørgensen, he brought an action against O'Ryan turn brought a cross complaint in which he claimed to be the owner of the building. As a result of the settlement made out of court, Morgan has gained a clear title to this land.

MORAGA, May 4.—The first strawberries to be grown in western Contra Costa county are now being picked on the Springmeyer ranch in Moraga valley. BLANKING CALLED ON RIVER SPAN

MARTINEZ, May 4.—Proponents and opponents of the Delta Bridge company's application to Contra Costa supervisors for a franchise to bridge the San Joaquin river, three miles east of Antioch, are gathered in Sacramento at a public hearing in the state highway commission's quarters.

The call for the meeting was issued jointly by State Engineer W. F. McClure and Major U. S. Grant III, United States engineer in this district. Following receipt of a letter by the board of supervisors from Major Grant in which possible government opposition to the type of bridge projected was intimated.

The board of supervisors has already expressed its intention of granting a franchise and the matter is now before the state engineer for his approval. If the latter approves the plans the supervisors will be in a position to grant the franchise formally.

Opposition to the proposed bridge is certain from the standpoint of the Board of Engineers, who are in opposition to the proposed type of structure as not feasible, and asserting that its location would be in the densest tule forest, with resultant serious menaces to navigation.

"Don't cork the neck of the bottle with a bridge" is the plea made by Walters in support of the deep

Postmaster's Removal Asked

MARYSVILLE, May 4.—Removal of William T. Peterson at Arboga, near here, because of alleged shortage in funds at his post office is recommended in a complaint postal inspectors filed against him at the postoffice department in Washington D. C.

Relics May Be Cause of Probe

JACKSON, May 4.—Who gave Volcano's historic cannon to the state? That is the question agitating the minds of residents of that quaint old mining town, which wants its cannon back.

A beautiful row is in sight, promising to be far-reaching, unless the weapon is soon returned.

The cannon, purchased during the Civil War by the one-time famous Volcano Blues, a military company which was never called into action, has long been the pride of Amador county. It was loaned to the state by the state in 1904.

Now the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, in response to a letter of inquiry, states the cannon occupies a position on the capital grounds and it is understood that it was donated to the state by the people of Volcano.

With the cannon went a number of early-day relics, none of which have been returned.

The Amador County Federation of Women's Clubs is up in arms and demanding investigation of the entire matter.

Grower Predicts Best Melon Year

TURLOCK, May 4.—Dalton E. Cross, said to be largest shipper of cantaloupes and honeydew melons in the state, in speaking of the prospects for the Turlock district during the coming season said: "Turlock should know its best year because the cantaloupe crop of Imperial valley ripened earlier this spring than ever before and that means that the entire crop will be created for Turlock melons should have the field entirely alone for at least three weeks. The first shipments will probably be made about the 20th of July."

IN A HUMPHREY VISITS OLD HOME

"My visit here has no social, political or legal significance. I have come to visit my mother and to enjoy my home city again."

In this way did Mrs. Henry Broadwood, the wife of a British army captain and widow of the late Prince Ibrahim, a cousin of the Khedive of Egypt, and known on the stage as Ola Humphrey, scout the theories that her visit had to do with the $5,000,000 said to have been left her by the Egyptian prince.

Mrs. Broadwood is a native of this city, where she made her professional debut. She married Edwin Mordant, an actor, some 20 years ago, was divorced and later married Prince Ibrahim. She was suing him for divorce when he died. It was reported that she received $5,000,000 from his estate, and recently she was sued by Herman L. Roth, a Los Angeles attorney, for $2,455,000, which he claims is due him for obtaining the settlement.

The visitor is the daughter of Mrs. M. J. Humphrey and the sister of Orval Humphrey, the actor, who is now appearing in San Francisco.

Under the plan lumber from the southern Oregon and Siskiyou county mills will be moved over the Southern Pacific to Chico, where it would be transferred to the Sacramento Northern, which line will in turn deliver it to the Western Pacific at Oroville. From Oroville the Western Pacific will take up the haul, moving the shipment over the mountains and returning it to the Southern Pacific at Winnemucca, Nevada.

With a bond issue of $1,800,000 Butte county has built approximately 180 miles of good roads, transforming the county in the past two years. That was an average of $10,000 a mile. Purchase of Water Works Considered MANTECA, May 4.—A mass meeting has been called for tonight to consider the purchase of the Manteca water works by the city. It is owned by a company, which is willing to sell for $56,500, the price set by the railroad commission recently. At a preliminary meeting some opposition to the proposed bond issue arose, opponents of the proposition declaring the price too high. Others declared the price is fair and quite cheap for the company's bonds to indicate that the water works can pay off the bond issue very easily.

TURLOCK NOTES

TURLOCK, May 4.—Lettuce is being successfully grown at Hillmar, a suburb of Turlock and the latest information is that Charles Kierling netted more than $200 per acre off an acre and a half, the undertaking being an experiment. Last season lettuce was first grown here by Mahaffey and Taylor.

The Hume canner is still handling spinach, and the management anticipates that the supply will last for two weeks more, much later than last season.

The directors of the Turlock Irrigation district were credited with the completion of Don Pedro dam by E. L. Roush, retiring director of the Modesto Irrigation district due to a recall.

Boy Discovered; Kidnapers Make Their Escape

WATERTOWN, N. Y., May 4.—Verner Alexanderson, kidnaped Scheuchstady lad for whom a nation-wide search was conducted for 72 hours, and who was found last night in a shack on the Indian river near Theresa, 25 miles from here, started for home today after a joyful reunion with his father and mother at the home of Sheriff Ernest C. Gillette. With him goes a dog, present from his kidnapers, the lad insisting that unless his new pet accompanied him he did not want to go.

Mary Fairbanks of Ogdenburg, and Stanley Crandall of Rochester and Watertown, the alleged kidnapers, have escaped into Canada, it is believed.

Mrs. H. D. Grenett of Alexandria Bay, in whose charge the boy was found and who is said to be the foster mother to Fairbanks' wife, is at the county jail here.

Alexanderson reached Watertown early and went to the home of Sheriff Gillette.

The boy was found by Bert Jarvis, Theresa, Jefferson county, boat liveryman. He was living in a cottage near Theresa. The cottage was buried deep in the woods along the Indian river. Jarvis, caretaker for the cottage, rented it on Monday night to the two men and a boy. Later, the trio returned, bringing with them a woman and explained to Jarvis that they expected her to take care of their "son" until they could return with their "families." The woman told him her name was Alexandra and said that she had been employed by two men Monday night at Alexandria Bay to take care of their son.

ONE FLOOR TO HOUSE LICENSE BUREAUS OF CITY

Ralph York, executive secretary of the public works department, today announced that all plans are now completed for the remodeling of the city hall to concentrate all the license departments on the fifth floor.

The building and electrical departments are there now, but the plumbing department is on another floor. The big central court on the fifth floor will be partitioned to make room for the new department.

The city council this morning accepted a deed presenting the New Century club property in West Oakland for the city's recreation department, and cancelled the soft drink and restaurant licenses of three alleged bootleggers. They were: Joe Marchigiani, 301 Broadway; M. J. O'Connell, 469 Tenth, and R. L. Garcia, 4533 East Fourteenth.

NO MYSTERY IN THE WAY POSAM HEALS

Posam heals skin eruptions so quickly that some folks almost believe there's a mystery about it. Not a bit!

Years ago an expert was seeking the best way to treat skin troubles. One day he made a combination of certain simple, gentle things and tried it on a very severe case of itching eczema.

To his delight it gave instant relief and he began to use it on all cases after case of eczema, rash, pimples and such tormenting, unsightly affections. Almost every time it succeeded. He called it "Posam."

Its merit was immediately recognized and soon it was on sale everywhere. Aided by Posam Soap, it is bringing skin health to thousands daily. For trial sample send 10c to POSAM, 243 W. 47th St., New York—Advertisement.

was 45 years old, introduced him as a writer and became, while it was not his best book, his only "best seller."

Then Hough turned his attention to the West and wrote of it as he found it. With a reputation for romantic fiction behind him he was big enough to forswear the temptation to present the wild and woolly and exaggerated West, which is always accepted in the East. Instead, he wrote informative and interpretative articles in the reputable magazines. He served in notable manner that part of the country which claimed his affections and became recognized as an accurate observer and an authority. For twenty years he held to the task and it was but a short time before his death he saw presented in pageant form for the motion pictures his story of prairie schooners and pioneer days, "The Covered Wagon." So his last literary act was another distinctive contribution toward perpetuating and extending the tradition of the West.

Emerson Hough was a Middle Westerner who responded to the call of the mountains and valleys of the Northwest and Pacific Slope. Because he was conscientious and his love of this country was so real, he put aside the opportunity to write sensational fiction and, instead, accepted the task of presenting the story and the wonders of the West before thousands of American readers. For that he will be remembered.

THE TRADE ENVOYS.

The Government is interested in pointing out to young men the opportunities which await in the foreign trade field. Particularly pertinent are the suggestions to the young men of the Pacific Coast for it is to the Orient that industrial America is looking for the large development of commerce.

Today leaders of industry are taking increasing interest in the export departments of their organizations. By offering the management of these departments to energetic men of vision and training, by increasing production for export sale, and by sending Americans to foreign fields they are constantly supporting the program for increased exports and advancing the interests of this country in that field.

It is considered most important that the men who represent the United States in the foreign countries be equipped with knowledge and temperament for the task. Universities are offering courses which give a conception of the duties but the job is not one to be mastered without an unusual amount of study and application. The envoy of trade must have a knowledge of the commodity he expects to sell and be a student of the language and characteristics of those with whom he plans to trade. In return he is offered the advantages of travel and new contacts. The wrong man in the job can do more harm than good; the right one can take a leading part in the business with which he is associated.

The foreign trade field is a large and promising one for the young man of today but it is not to be entered lightly and without preparation.

When passenger airplanes can carry more or more men across the continent in a day, the Oaks can apply for membership in the American or National League. That is the reaction of the latest record flight upon the baseball fan. The politician is saying that, in the future, the Congressman or Senator will be able to hasten home over night to be speaker at a luncheon club meeting or to mend his fences and the businessman will recognize the new last-minute opportunities to jump to far places to sign on the dotted line.

The German offer to pay France approximately $7,500,000,000 for reparations and its prompt rejection was done no more than show how far apart the two countries are on the question of the amount. Not only is the amount far below the minimum France is likely to consider, but the terms are not calculated to narrow, even slightly, the distance between disputants.

Henry Ford says he has a scheme to make coal burn twice. Pent and repeat?

Time flies. In 1917 Mary Pickford was only making $10,000 a week.

THE NEW WORLD COURT.

The President's insistence that the phases of party platforms shall be taken seriously will be applauded by every intelligent behavior in government through parties. The keystone of the system is responsibility and one of the influences which have produced the weakening of party ties, as pointed by Mr. Harding, is the impression among many conscientious voters that our two great parties no longer represent definite principles and policies or are willing to bind themselves to definite programs. The people have watched year by year the expediencies of party conventions and read many a line which were obviously framed to avoid issues while purporting to meet them. Platforms have become wearisome jungles of platitudinous verbiage in which courageous and unambiguous statements have seemed to become rarer year by year. The caution of office-holders and office-seekers has become the duty of government, and issues which should be classified for voters and decided by them are too often compromised in conventions through fear of losing an election. This is to destroy the foundation of true parties—as distinguished from organizations of office-holders and seekers—and if the President's influence is to be effective, he will have to change the really vital benefit to representative government.—Chicago Tribune.

Song.
The garden of my sweetheart
Is full of love and light;
She mothers all the flowers
And tucks them in at night.

So all the reddest roses
And tulips growing there
Welcome her kindly fingers
And adore her tender care.

She helps the flower people
When the soil is hard and cold.
Keeping their souls in blossom
And their hearts from growing old.

The garden of my sweetheart
Is full of God and love;
Fragrance and beauty underneath,
And sunshine up above.
—Sindbad.

As for the wife-beating charge, Mr. Hirschfeld said that was a dead issue. The story was printed long ago in all the newspapers, and in spite of it Mayor Hylan was twice triumphantly elected mayor of New York. From a news story.

We have said before, and we repeat, that this question of wife-beating is a strictly personal and private and domestic matter and should never be dragged into the courts or into politics. Some would like it and crave it; others pretend that they are averse to it; some, it seems, are really averse to it; but in any case it is nothing for the neighbors to express themselves about. We do not think a man should beat his wife idly, or for exercise, or for pleasure; the only excuse, to our mind, is a sense of duty. But others may not think as we do, and we are tolerant and liberal. We are against any law making wife-beating compulsory.

Belgrade, the astronomers now tell us, has a diameter of only 300,000,000 miles; whereas Antares has a diameter of 420,000,000. Neither one of them looks a foot more than 225,000,000 miles thick to us.

Everybody now seems to be agreed that we should go into some sort of a league of nations, in one way or another, and the next step will probably be to go in... and forget it.

Ann Prudence Is Against Bobbed Hair.

Sir: Our campaign for Aunt Prudence for President has a wide following and is now in the hands of the finance committee for reorganization. Before we begin our drive for campaign funds, we must settle this question: Whether Aunt Prudence's campaign against sex will make bobbed hair compulsory for all women or not.

Although most of our speakers are advocating it, they fear a summary issue if introduced in any campaign. We thought to advise with Aunt Prudence before taking a decided stand for or against the bobbed hair agitators.

Very truly yours,
Wm. Wiggington,
Chairman Finance Committee.

The Aunt Prudence Hecklebury for President campaign has struck another snag. Aunt Prudence refuses to say whether or not she favors the expurgations of the Bible. She asks the high council that that is not the sort of question that should be asked of a lady.

From a headline: "Wife Tells Court Mince and Fear-Followed Husband's Rise to $150,000 a Year." But there will be thousands willing to take the risk.

The average woman can no more resist telling her next nearest intimate the details of her coquetry than the average suicide can resist the temptation to leave a note when he blows out the gas.

Thanks.
St. In a sort of 'hang-over' Lenten spirit I have been reading upon Sinclair's new book, "The Goose Step," and I learn from the autobiographical chapter that the distinguished author—this, I understand, is the orthodox way of describing him—supported himself while in college by writing jokes for the newspapers. Now I know how he made his money.

St. Of course I don't mean serious, earnest stuff, like yours. I mean humorous stuff.

Personally, we welcome the new colors in footwear—purple, yellow, green and pink, blue, etc. But Aunt Prudence Hecklebury is against it. She feels that there is something vaguely humorous about it without being able to state it.

St. I am sure that the new colors will be the ones who will wear those shoes," she says, and that is all she will say.

Hermione delighted with the new styles. She has already ordered three dozen pairs of shoes, of all colors.

Hermione has known for a long time that as her moods change her aura changes color. And she dresses to the color of her aura, in order that she may be in harmony. The shoes are an advance, step forward, she says, toward Perfect Realization of Accord between the Self, the surroundings and the External Environment.

HOPPING ACROSS THE U.S.

EXCERPTS from the NATIONAL PRESS

Desert News: Old Posey to his oldsmen was a hero and to them the met a hero's fate. They buried him in the mountain fastnesses and pledged the only white man with them—the United States marshal—to secrecy. That secret will be kept and will remain such until some day, in the course of the onward march of civilization, the stones which mark his last resting place will reveal the spot where Old Posey was tucked away. I have said that the only good Indians are dead ones. Such is not the case. Proportionately there are perhaps as many good ones among them as among the whites. Treat them right and most of them will not be unkind.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: The Pennsylvania railroad says it would cost $500,000,000 to eliminate the 12,000 grade crossings on its system. As a mitigation of this evil it has been studying the causes of crossing accidents and means of preventing them. It concludes that "the most effective remedy for preventing automobile accidents of all kinds is not the elimination of highway crossings and improving conditions generally on the highways, important as this may be, but the elimination of reckless drivers who make up a small percentage of the total, and who are responsible for nearly all the accidents."

New York Herald: When President Harding attended the baseball contest in the Yankee Stadium on Tuesday and congratulated Babe Ruth on another of his prodigious home runs the professional game and its players received a testimonial of the like of which could not be purchased with all the millions that are hoarded in the nation's treasuries.

ALBIN PUTZER.

To the Editor of the Tribune:

The University of California has lost the oldest member of its faculty, the emeritus professor of German literature, Albin Putzer. He was born in Austria in 1845 and came to this country at the age of 21. Having served successively as teacher of modern languages in the Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, and as principal of the Santa Barbara college, he was appointed instructor in German at the state university in 1874. His success in this position secured for him in 1883 promotion to the professorship of the German language and literature and therewith the headship of the department of German. After his retirement in 1910 he devoted himself to study and to writing. But his vision became impaired and the idleness thus forced upon him weighed heavily upon his mind; the dread of total loss of sight, added to illness and untoward events in his family, cast a shadow upon his declining years. The recent death of his wife, to whom he was deeply devoted, broke his spirit; he lost the will to live and, without mortal ailment, passed away on the first day of May, in the fiftieth year of his connection with the university.

A more enthusiastic teacher the university has probably never had. He knew how to vivify even the dry minutiae of elementary language work; his method was essentially inductive and anticipated much of the most enlightened present-day practice. He kept adding to his own already exceptional knowledge of languages; when past middle age he acquired a practical command of modern Greek. But the interpretation of literature, especially of poetry, was his particular joy. Critical analysis at the hand of academic rules was foreign to his nature and training. A Genuinism with a distinct poetical vein, he would recreate in himself the emotional content of a poem and bring to its expression all the earnestness and force of an ardent temperament. Himself an idealist, he reversed Schiller above all other poets; unworried to a degree he cultivated by preference the spiritual side of life. Above and beyond the imparting of knowledge, the implanting of ideals was to him the transcendent mission of the teacher.

He leaves the remembrance of a distinct personality. Gentle, almost timid, by nature, he could yet become militant in a cause that was near and dear to him; warm-hearted, always ready to relieve distress, trusting and generous to fault, inflexible in his judgment of others and sincere in all his professions, he won the warm regard of all who learned to know him. The one thing dearest to his heart was the grateful affection of his students; it endures after him as a fitting monument to one who gave the best that was in him to the guidance and uplifting of youth.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

One of the movements that should find a ready response from all Californians is the campaign for preservation of native wild flowers. No other part of the world is so fortunate in natural floral endowment as California. With the greater colonization of the state, it is inevitable that the wild flower-growing areas should shrink, thereby making it all the more necessary that efforts be made to increase the propagation of the native species on whatever areas are still available.—Palo Alto Times.

The vote by which the appropriation of the California Polytechnic School was doubled in the assembly shows that some effective work has been done by somebody. As the assembly is more strongly behind the Governor than the senate, the amendment to the budget is likely to hold its place and it reaches him when he may "cut it out if he will. He has the power."

THE DARK DAYS.
Let us bear
With our care
Till the sky above
Grows fair.
And the sun comes shining out
With the splendor of his light;
Let us smile
For a while O'er the long
And dreary mile.
For the battle isn't over till we've Lost the heart to fight.

Let us say
In the gloom,
Cold and cheerless
Rainy day:
We are troubled, we are weary, and Disaster you portend,
But the rain
And the pain
Shall not get us
To complain—
We may break beneath our burden,
But we'll bear it to the end!

There is none,
Here or gone,
Whom the sun
Has smiled upon.
None of all the dead or living who
Has laughed the year away;
All have left
Trouble's weft
And the stinging rains
Trace their
All have wept, and all have suffered
Just as we who greet to-day.

So when we Grieve for fate,
What the end
Is going to be,
When we falter and weary
'neath the burdens we must bear,
Let us say—
To the day
That is cheerless,
Cold and gray:
"We shall keep our faith undaunted till the sky again grows fair."

ARMY MENACING CANTON ROUTED BY SUN'S TROOPS

Constitutionalists of South Defeat Enemy by Big Flank Movement.

HONGKONG, May 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—After a fluctuating battle along the North river lasting many days and entailing heavy casualties, Sun Yat Sen, the Canton leader of the southern Constitutionalists, has gained what is considered here a decisive victory over the Kwangsi army that was menacing Canton.

The main battle began Sunday when the Sun Yat Sen forces made a general attack on the enemy, who occupied strong positions on a hill along the Canton-Hanow railway. The turning point of the battle came Monday, according to the reports received here. The Constitutionalists, by a wide detour, succeeded in striking at the enemy's rear, and the Kwangsi soldiers, demoralized when they found themselves outflanked by a considerable force, retreated precipitately.

"BANDIT'S" GUN PROVES TO BE TOBACCO PLUG

LODI, May 4.—Summoned to North Sacramento street by telephone calls that a daylight hold-up man was operating, stopping all autoists, City Marshal F. Christensen made a record run and captured the man. The "holdup" exhibited evidence of recent internal contact with jack-ass brandy and pulled his "gun"—a plug of tobacco, which he waved unsteadily. Christensen escorted him to the railroad track and told him to keep on going.

TRIOBLE AMONG LEADERS.

CANTON, May 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fighting continues along the North river, with the Sun Yat Sen party claiming important progress. Both sides have suffered heavy casualties.

The disbanded troops of General Chen Chung-ming have been taken over by Wong Fung-tun, who is attacking the Sun Yat Sen forces on the East river. On the West river all communication and transportation has been stopped, and there is desultory fighting.

The militarists have petitioned Dr. Sun to start another expedition against the north. Some of his supporters have resigned official positions. He has appointed Wu Xue-fung chief of the salt inspectorate, replacing the nominee of the Peking government.

ENGLISH COUPLE LIKE CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—California's beauties, the Movie Colony and prohibition were subjects discussed by Sir Edward Naylor-Leyland, young English baronet, and his French bride, who were in San Francisco yesterday. After a day of sightseeing they boarded the liner President Cleveland for Yokohama or a world tour.

The only thing Lady Leyland found lacking in this country, she said, is a glass of good wine with her meals. Concerning the Movie Colony she said she had met many of the Hollywood film favorites and had found them to be good people. Leyland declared that on arriving in San Francisco he felt as though he were in London once more.

ALAMEDA, May 4.—Elaborate preparations are under way for the staging of a water carnival fête for six days starting May 25, at Cottage Baths in this city under the supervision of the Alameda Pyramid No. 5, Ancient Order of Sciots, according to the announcement of the committee, which is headed by Otto Rittler, E. Proceeds from the event, it is announced, will be used to defray the expenses of sending the drill team and band of the Alameda Pyramid to the state convention of the order in San Diego.

ANTI-TRUST CASE
BEING ARGUED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—No evidence was given today by the group of contractors and firms charged with violating the Cartwright anti-trust laws. Attorney Bert Schlessinger attempted to introduce building records of San Francisco for 1921 and 1922 to support his claim that it was because of a tremendous boom that the contractors refused material to certain concerns, there being not enough to go around, but the court would not admit the evidence. The records show that in 1922 the building contracts were $45,000,000 as compared with $21,000,000 for 1921.

Special Prosecutor Alexander O'Grady then introduced three letters exchanged between the Building Trades Council and the Builders Exchange. These showed that the union had notified the exchange that it would accept the rulings of the arbitration board. Arguments in the case begun this afternoon.

Dogs Wouldn't Run,
So Lost His Money

Operating a coursing park is not a profitable occupation, according to C. Kritzmill, formerly part owner of the Emeryville track, according to his testimony today before Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco, on an order of examination as to whether he had any money or property with which to satisfy a $2500 judgment.

Asked what he had done with certain moneys he said he had borrowed from a local bank Kritzmill replied:

"I owned one-half of the Emeryville race track and I lost three or four thousand dollars trying to make the greyhounds run."

After Kritzmill had given up $5 which he had in his pocket the case was continued two weeks for further testimony.

'Mop Up' Committees to Fill Community Chest

Decision to continue the Community Chest campaign until the goal of $486,355 is attained was reached at a meeting of the executive committee this morning. Organization of "Mop Up" committees for intensive work will be effected and it is believed that the remaining money will be obtained. Emphasis was placed at the meeting upon the circumstances of the campaign was handicapped by a shortage of workers. Many large districts of the city were left entirely uncovered. It was also pointed out that whereas in the past a maximum number of contributors to charitable and welfare organizations was but 7500 the present campaign had brought in upwards of 30,000 subscribers. An analysis of the Community Chest campaigns conducted in other cities places Oakland fourth in point of number subscribers.

Acknowledgement that Oakland has fallen down in the Community Chest campaign and that the situation can only be saved through the immediate recognition of this fact on the part of the public is contained in a statement issued yesterday by the Community Chest executive committee.

"The facts in the Community Chest campaign are these," reads the statement. "The Community Chest minimum for all 1923 relief and welfare work is $486,355. The pledges to date amount to $285,231. Therefore, there must be raised in the next two days $201,125."

INDIVIDUALS BLAMED.

"If the Community Chest falls will it be because you waited for a solicitor who missed you? Will it be because you have not given as you have given in the past for separate drives? Will it be because you did not want to give more than your thrifty competitor? Will it be because you thought someone else was carrying the load? Will it be because the Community Chest falls who will care for the down and out? Who will bring the sick babies and the poor back to health or the aged and infirm? Who will take the drifting orphans into their homes?"

"Oakland must not fail. If you have not contributed make your contribution now. Mail it or take it direct to the Community Chest headquarters, 1751 Franklin street."

LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS.

Prompted by a realization of the gravity of the situation a number of subscribers have increased their contributions from 33 1/3 to 50 per cent. Included in the list of those who have taken this step are W. W. Garthwaite, former Governor; George C. Pardee, Mayor; Goldwater, A. S. Lavenex, Mrs. H. C. Taft, Charles G. Monroe, the Fulton theater, Joseph J. Roshorough, Cal. Farm, Lacey, Kehrlein, and others.

A subscription of $775 was announced yesterday from the post-office employees and another amounting to $500 from the Oakland Lodge of Jolks.

The following list of contributions of $100 or more and the employees subscriptions were announced yesterday:

$500—Elks' Club, Sunset Lumber Company.

$250—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Chamberlain, Hunt, Hatch & Co., Miller Ice Cream Company, H. A. Mosher, R. J. McMahon, Reed & Corlett.

Electric Division, $135; Southern Pacific, $24.40; Stulsalt Company, $57.50; Thomas & Harris, $10; Union French Bakery, $10; Union Gas Engine Company, $20; Western Electric Company, Emeryville, $23.10; Western Wicker Works, 20; Lager Steel Metal Works, $24.50.

The Official Scout Knife

THE Boy Scouts of America have authorized the Remington Arms Company, Inc., to manufacture the "Official Knife—Boy Scouts of America." This knife is of solid construction throughout and is built to meet the exacting requirements of Scout work. Every Official Scout Knife bearing the Remington trademark must be equal in quality and workmanship to the master exhibits submitted to and approved by the U. S. Government Bureau of Standards.

Remington Official Scout Knives bear on the handle the Fleur de Lis emblem with the Scout motto "BE PREPARED." The Fleur de Lis insignia with the motto "BE PREPARED" are also borne on the large blade. On the tang of the large blade in circle is the Remington UMC trademark. This mark is the guarantee of quality—a knife made in America.

A Real Man's Knife—Complete in Every Detail

MASTER BLADE—The master blade is designed with extra gauge and weight to give greater strength and durability for the rough, hard usage of camp life. Every blade has a strong, sharp cutting edge. The correct adjustment of spring tension makes it easy to open and shut the blades.

CAN OPENER—Canned goods are always an important part of the camp mess—the can-opener blade is designed for the purpose.

BOTTLE OPENER—The bottle-opener or Crown cap-lifter is handy for removing caps from bottles or lifting tops from Jam and Jelly glasses.

SCREW-DRIVER—There are always many uses around camp for a screw-driver; adjusting fishing reels, etc., etc.

PUNCH BLADE—A most practical working tool—it will punch perfectly round holes in varying sizes in leather or other material. It is almost indispensable around the camp or on a hike. Remington Punch Blades are forged, hardened and tempered from high-grade crucible steel. They will sharpen and re-sharpen on any good sharpening stone—a most desirable feature.

SHACKLES—The Shackle (ring) is made of 18% riveted through the bolster and will not pull out or rattle. The knife is attached to the belt or may be worn suspended from the neck by the use of a leather thong.

FOR RADIO—This Scout Knife makes a fine Radio tool. The punch blade is ideal for scraping insulation off a wire—also for making holes for wires, screws, etc. The screw driver also comes in handy.

QUINET CAPTURES BRITISH GOLF CUP IN TENSE FIGHT

Boston Star Defeats Portland
Doctor in Play-off; Americans Lauded.

By ROBT E. HARLOW,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

SANDWICH, England, May 4.—Francis Ouimet of Boston today won the play-off from Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, Ore., for the St. George's challenge cup in the international golf tournament.

The match provided a tense finish, Ouimet winning by a single stroke at the end of 18 holes, an advantage gained on the opening hole, where he took a four against a rival five. The medal scores were:

Ouimet 77 and Dr. Willing 78.

BRITISH PRESS PAYS TIBUTE TO AMERICANS.

LONDON, May 4 (By the Associated Press).—The fact that an American golfer is to carry home the Royal St. George grand challenge cup is received without resentment and with some generous recognition of the superiority of the trans-Atlantic players by the London newspaper experts. Loss of the trophy and Britain's downfall, of course, are lamented, but no excuses are made for the British failure.

"Decisive," "splendid," "well-merited," are among the adjectives applied by the critics to the triumph of the overseas visitors.

"There is no sort of excuse to be made for our players; they had their chances and they played very disappointingly," says the golf expert of the Times. "The Morning Post says editorially: 'Plainly, our friends the enemy have no longer anything to learn from us and equally plainly, we have something to learn from them.'"

What the American amateur of the highest class seems to possess is a steadiness that the best professionals could hardly improve upon."

LONDON, May 4.—(United Press).—British golf critics heaped none too gentle criticism upon the head of Jess Sweetser, amateur

Veteran's Plea Over 'Festsivity' Wins Leniency

SAN LEANDRO, May 4.—"Say, listen, Marshal. If you were in the army for so long that you couldn't remember just when you joined and you met an old comrade that fought side by side with you overseas, and to celebrate the reunion the both of you went out and got kind of stewed up, you'd hate to get punished for it, wouldn't you? Well, that's me all over."

M. Costi, who said he was in the United States army and at present on a short leave of absence, arrested last night by Policeman Joseph Brown and locked in the city jail on a charge of intoxication, placed this proposition before Marshal J. F. Peralta this morning, when informally arraigned.

"Mind you," returned Peralta, with the suspicion of a smile, "I'm not committing myself, but maybe I'd have done exactly what you did. Grab the next train to your camp."

golf star, today, for his action in the final round of the St. George challenge cup play at Sandwich. Sweetser was far off his game and tore up his card.

The British thought it unparliamentary and "quite temperamental."

If you are a constipation victim you need Bran that is ALL BRAN

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is so delicious and inviting that thousands of families use it constantly to make enticing bakery batches, such as bran muffins, pancakes, raisin bread, etc., they eat it as a cereal, and many sprinkle it on their favorite cereal, its nut-like flavor having a fine appeal.

Many more thousands of people eat Kellogg's Bran every day of their lives because it has permanently relieved them of constipation and the dangers of dreaded diseases that constipation leads to. If you are suffering with constipation you need ALL BRAN—Kellogg's Bran—with its permanent corrective qualities. Foods that are part bran can never give the desired relief because they do not contain sufficient of the elements that Kellogg's Bran naturally contains.

Bevan, Mary Frances Stout, Joseph Oliver, Fishbeck, Stuart Smith, Don E. McNamee, Ruth Harwood and Mary Hollenbeck. The playlets were directed by Lois Atkins.

Grandma loves HER CUP of COFFEE

"Breakfast wouldn't be breakfast," she often says, "without my cup of Coffee."

And as she pours it, steamin' hot, into a blue-edged cup (a cherished relic of her first set of dishes) the flicker of a smile lights up her kindly face.

What memories for Grandma in a cup of Coffee!

Perhaps she is thinking of her first breakfast with John. (How good the Coffee was on their honeymoon!) Or, of later breakfasts amid the prattle of little children. (Why, it seems only yesterday that she cuddled John, Jr., on her knee as she sipped her breakfast cup of Coffee!)

Grandma is seventy now—although she does not look it—and she has gone far along the Pathway of Life. But there has not been a morning in fifty years when that steamin' cup of Coffee has not helped to make life more enjoyable.

Truly—there is warmth and good cheer in a wholesome cup of Coffee. And the thousands upon thousands of hale and hearty grandmothers who drink it are proof that there is good health in it, too!

never varies in quality—that every can contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—that baking failures are unknown and results always positive where it is used. Calumet has been relieving housewives of baking worries for over 30 years. Its sale is over 2,4 times as much as that of any other brand.

It is pure in the can—pure in the baking—contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by the United States Food Authorities.

Get a can of Calumet today—try the recipe below.

CALUMET BISCUITS

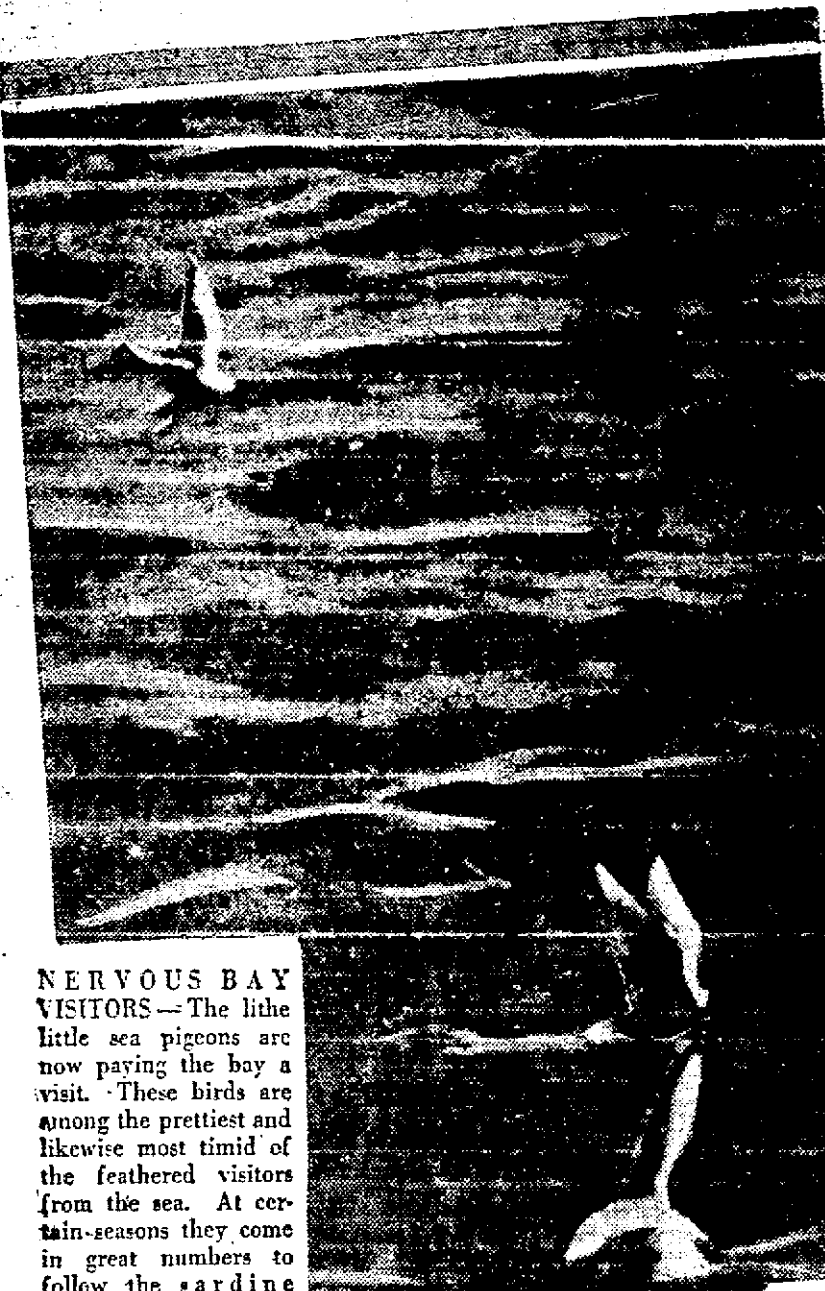

4 cups of sifted pastry flour
4 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1 level teaspoon of salt
2 rounding tablespoons of butter or lard
½ cup of milk ½ cup of water

Sift flour once, then measure, add salt and baking powder and sift three times, rub shortening in with fork or spoon, add milk and water, turn out on a well floured board and roll one inch thick, cut and bake in a quick oven about 12 to 15 minutes.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounces instead of 16 ounces. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

NERVOUS BAY VISITORS—The little sea pigeons are now paying the bay a visit. These birds are among the prettiest and likewise most timid of the feathered visitors from the sea. At certain seasons they come in great numbers to follow the sardine shoals. They differ materially from the gulls and other sea birds in not having webbed feet and in having a small, sharp pointed bill.

VOTERS WARNED MUNICIPAL WATER SYSTEM IS VITAL

H. F. Cary, 'Own Your Own Five' Campaigner, Says Supply Must Be Got.

Using the people to "forget the source and remember the shortage," H. F. Cary, candidate for director of the proposed Eastbay water district, warned his campaign hearers today not to let themselves be distracted from the issue—the setting up of a municipal water system.

Getting a supply is a secondary consideration at the election next Tuesday, he said, the main purpose being to set up the necessary machinery to go after that supply.

As chairman of the public utility committee of the Santa Fe club, the oldest civic organization in Oakland, he recalled that many engineers' reports agreed that the water supply in the Eastbay section is sufficient only for the next ten years.

"OUR OWN FIVE"

The thing to do now, he urged, is to establish the machinery to deliver into the sources of supply and then to submit the choice to the people at a future election. Cary is campaigning with the "own your own five," who, besides himself, are former Mayor Samuel C. Irving of Berkeley, "father of the water district"; Mayor E. J. Garrard of Richmond; Councilman D. Miller of Oakland, and Councilman Al Latham of Alameda.

Water in plentiful supply is an essential factor in the great naval base to be located at Alameda, said Cary. He recalled that not many months ago Vallejo was brought to a sharp realization of this fact, and it has set itself to the task of providing the supply necessary for Mare Island.

"Next Tuesday's election," he continued, "affords an opportunity for this large metropolitan area of the Eastbay section to take over the function of water supply and pave the way for proper and unhindered development of all the communities in it."

Cary then urged that all whom he addressed vote in favor of the two important questions—first, the establishment of the district, and second, the election of five directors, who, he said, should be the "own your own five."

"The Eastbay district," Cary continued, "is just now at the threshold of a mighty industrial and commercial expansion. But it must remain at the threshold, unable to take many steps forward, unless it first provides itself with a bountiful and cheap supply of water—the most essential thing for a community to have in order to go forward."

"No community has ever reached its full prosperity until its water supply was adequately developed and water could be furnished to all concerns in plenty and at a cheap rate."

"Los Angeles is the most striking illustration of this axiom, for, on the completion of its aqueduct, it began at once the marvelous expansion which has made it today the metropolis of the Pacific coast."

Cary pointed out that the district could not be formed unless Oakland gave its hearty support—and he "submitted" that the people of other cities on the Pacific coast was so in need of water as Oakland.

"The establishment of industrial plants is highly important," Cary went on. "The erection of business structures and homes is most essential. Harbor development is a pressing need. But none of these things equal in vital importance to the community the necessity for adequate water, and none of these things can be accomplished without adequate water. Without water all progress will be seriously retarded, if, indeed, it is not stopped entirely."

Harding Orders Search Made for Canby's Grave

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Touched by an unusual endeavor to show gratitude, President Harding has directed the War Department to ascertain the burial place of General Canby, who was killed in 1873 during some Indian troubles in Northern California.

The President acted upon receipt of a letter from Charles Hall, an aged attorney of Bay Minette, Ala., who wrote that he wanted to place a wreath on the grave of General Canby.

"General Canby was in command of the Federal army at Fort Blakely in Baldwin county, Alabama," the Alabama wrote the President. "The Confederate soldiers at Fort Blakely surrendered to him on April 9, 1865. On the morning of April 15, 1865, General Canby was in Fort Blakely, and on that day my father and I went to Blakely to see General Canby to ask him for something to eat."

"I am now in my 69th year and I want to place a wreath on his grave before I pass away. General Canby gave us food when we were hungry."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 4.—The grave of General Edward Richard Springs Canby sought by Charles Hall, of Bay Minette, Ala., who wishes to pay a tribute to the officer's memory, is here in Crown Hill cemetery. General Canby was the son of I. T. Canby who was a candidate for Governor of Indiana in 1828, and he spent his boyhood in this State.

izations and addresses by candidates, citizens and campaign workers is marking the progress today of the fight to create a municipal water district at the election next Tuesday.

CIVIC LEAGUE FAVORS.

The Civic League Improvement club, representing improvement organizations from all parts of the city, went on record to favor the district, and at the same time the Central and Oakland Improvement club announced that its 400 members will put on a telephone campaign during the next three days to insure the success of the movement.

Mayor Louis Bartlett spoke before a number of women at the Oakland club.

Emmet F. Husted submitted a list of fourteen points which he declared were fourteen good reasons why the water district should carry.

FRENCH LAUNCH TRIAL OF KRUPP PLANT OFFICIALS

Tanks Machine Guns Soldiers Guard Courtmartial Over Rioting.

By S. D. WEXER.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WERNER, Occupied Germany, May 4.—Amidst a war-like setting, emphasized by tanks, machine guns, military lorries and soldiers with bayoneted rifles, the trial of Gustav Krupp von Bohlen and Halbach and three directors of the Krupp works at Essen began today.

The directors are Bruhn, Hartwig and Oesterlein. The specific accusation is violation of decree 22, issued by General de Goutte, commander-in-chief of the French army of occupation, which forbids "complicity and other machinations in secret agreement" against order and the safety of the occupational forces.

The French claim there was a prearranged signal by which all the sirens and whistles were to be turned loose at the Krupp plant when any French soldiers appeared there.

When the French occupied the motor truck garage at the Krupp works March 31, the whistles and sirens were turned on full blast, making deafening noise that could be heard for miles.

Krupp works at Essen began today before a French court martial. They are charged with instigating disorders and arming German hostility against the French. Herr Krupp von Bohlen is head of the Krupp works and the husband of Bertha Krupp whose father founded the industry.

IN PAN-AMERICA TOLD TRADE MEN

Canada, Cuba, Argentine and West Coast of S. A. Show Business Revival.

NEW ORLEANS, May 4.—The international credit situation, particularly on this side of the Atlantic, was outlined today before the delegates to the Tenth National Foreign Trade Convention by C. C. Martin of the National Paper and Type Company.

Martin summarized the situation in part as follows: Canadian conditions show marked improvement. Favorable trade balance in 1922 was $12,000,000, crops are abundant, timber, paper, minerals and metal trades steadily improving. Lumber industry is active, and it is predicted that specie payments will soon be resumed. In 1923, Canada will lead the world in wheat exports. Cost of living remains stable, export prices are lower and export earnings are higher. Chief unfavorable factor is disparity between prices received for agricultural products and those asked for manufactured goods.

Mexican conditions are characterized by a psychological state of uncertainty proceeding from lack of definite opinion regarding agrarian, oil and labor legislation. Credit is restricted, collections slow and preference is for cash transactions. Banking facilities are insufficient, interest rates high and circulation of currency is slow. Exchange has remained steady. A slow cautious acceleration of activity is visible, but there is no evidence of rapid improvement.

CUBA CONDITIONS.
A good sugar crop with rising prices promises well for Cuba. Tobacco trade is also optimistic. Depression resulting from sharp declines in coffee, sugar and other agricultural products, characteristic conditions in Guatemala.

Colombian conditions have improved substantially. Large coffee crop with firm prices. Improvement in trade and balance of payments are heavy.

Chilean business conditions show improvement. Exchange is higher and nitrate stocks at home and abroad have been reduced. Copper production has increased and rising prices of rubber, oil and industrial shares have risen from 5 to 20 per cent. National finance however, is not satisfactory, and deficit will be substantial.

ARGENTINE PROSPECTS.
Optimism characterizes news from the Argentine. The chief sore spot, cattle industry, is on a fair way to recovery. Wheat demand and export, although government has several projects to relief. A record wheat crop and large return of oats are in prospect and flaxseed harvest will be double last year with large demand. Wool is active, also hides, trading on stock exchange is lively, money plentiful and interest rates low.

Brazilian trade balance is favorable, but exchange is unfavorable, due in large measure to the fact that under the coffee valorization scheme large quantities of exchange do not come on the market, and importers have difficulty in paying for goods. Crop reports are good, coffee exports increasing and new government plans drastic financial reforms.

The May Queen

It is not enough that her frock be dainty white, her ribbons the bright blue of the sky, and her crown of daisies plucked with the dew. The Queen O' the Mayas not too dignified to tump, and romping makes her hungry.

You must wake up very early, very early Mother dear,

For the box lunch of the fairest Queen must satisfy and cheer.

Which of course means bread fried to a golden brown in Nucoa, cakes shortened with Nucoa and fed with Nucoa icing—and fudge enriched to heavenly goodness by Nucoa.

And do you know, Mother, that—costs just half as much as the old-fashioned spread, so there'll be something in your pocketbook that will not only satisfy the Queen, but will cheer her when she shares it with the boldest lad of all.

Nucoa

Residence Robbed

By Gas Inspector
COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 4.—"I'm the gas man," explained a man when Mrs. Anna Mabry responded to a knock at her back door. He entered the collar, while Mrs. Mabry went about her work. This gas meter inspector was unusually polite, bowing and apologizing for his intrusion as he left. He had not been gone long, however, before Mrs. Mabry found that the "inspector" had stolen $15 in dimes, money, 50 pennies, a nickel and a silver dollar.

Boy Scouts Guests

ALAMEDA, May 4.—Honoring Troop No. 4, Alameda Boy Scouts, the women of the First Congregational church here gave a dinner last night in the church parlors which was attended by the boy scouts and members of the congregation. Speeches were made by W. B. Stephens, A. W. Porter, D. A. Eberley, R. T. Wright, H.

D. Plutz and Edward Albert. The dinner was prepared by a W. B. Martin, J. B. Elrod, M. Beggs and D. A. Eberley. Girls from the Sunday-school classes served the guests. A special program of music and vocal selections was given.

MRS. HEHN ASKS

DIVORCE, SAYING SPOUSE IS COOL

actress, residing in Berkeley, who married William C. Hehn, representative of a music publisher, in New York city, on January 27, 1919, today instituted suit for divorce. She recited an instance of her husband's infidelity, January 22, 1922, when she asserts Hehn refused to accompany her to a concert and then escorted another woman with whom he had previously dined at a cafe, setting toward her in an endearing manner.

The suit is filed by Attorney Frank L. Hain, who says the defendant has offices in the Panhandle building, San Francisco, where he goes under the name of "Hayne." He has an income of $400 a month, the wife declares, asking $150 a month alimony for support of herself and a son, Gene, aged two and one-half years.

Mrs. Hehn gives the date of their separation as April 19, last, and says that during their married life her husband was cool and indifferent, refused to speak to her for periods or called her a "fool," or said she had "no sense."

Extension of Belt Line Held Vital

ALAMEDA, May 4.—That the extension of the municipal belt line from its present terminus at Grand street and Clement avenue is a matter of vital importance in view of the fact that industrial plants are rapidly locating along the Alameda side of the estuary and need rail transportation, was the agreement reached last night by the Alameda City Planning Commission at a meeting held in the city hall.

The belt line was built in 1915 from surplus funds of the municipal light plant and extends for a mile and a half along Clement avenue, beginning at Broadway and ending at Grand street. It provides rail facilities to industrial plants in this vicinity and has proved a valuable asset to the city.

The commission is of the opinion that the road should be extended in the future to the Pacific Coast Ferry wharf, as the Pacific Coast Ferry wharf is the extreme western end of the city.

Grist from the Sport Mill

Reports from most fishing districts tell of the streams being practically fished out before the season opened last Tuesday. A particularly fragrant instance of pre-season fishing was encountered by those who fished the Almaden creek, fifteen miles from San Jose, on opening day. The writer started from Twin creeks at daylight and found trail broken on both sides of the stream. Indications pointed to dozens of persons having traversed the trails long before opening day and the big pools were completely fished out. The winter and spring growth of brush in the Almaden district clutters up the banks of the streams to such an extent that an axe is necessary to break through for the first time, but this year there were trails like highways.

Big Pools Fished Out Before Opening.

Five auto parties picked the same pool for their fishing on opening day and camped on the banks all night. In the morning they started fishing bright and early, but there wasn't even one trout left for them to get. That pool should have been the home of hundreds of fish as it was impossible for the big ones to go further up-stream but some anglers' taken before the opening and taken everything in sight. The same conditions were found on the Uvas and Lagus. Fishermen who made the hard trip to these streams quit fishing when they discovered that there were no trout left and they tried their luck in the Almaden. It was the same story all over and there seems no way of putting a stop to the noaching with the present force of game wardens who can't possibly visit every creek in the state.

No Fun on Near-by Creeks Until Later.

Fishing popular creeks on opening day is getting to be a joke and it is a wise angler who will take a chance in them a few weeks later. In the Almaden there was good fishing for exactly half an hour after sunrise. Then the army of anglers sailed forth and there never was a time when you couldn't see one man walking down the middle of the stream, another walking up the creek and several ambitious fishermen and fishermen women trying their luck from the banks. The wonder of it all was that the trout aren't scared clear up into the fields. In the old days an angler would sneak upon his prey but now all they need on the popular creeks is a jazz band at every pool and a trombone player near the riffles.

Feather River Yields Some Wonderful Fish.

Fishing in the Feather River is wonderful for this time of the year and some beauties have been caught there and shipped to town. Usually the water is not much good until the middle of June but this year it was right on opening day and those who made the long trip are well repaid for their trouble. Nothing under fourteen inches was shipped to Oakland from Belden and the fish were all in great condition. The Mokelumne yielded limit baskets to everybody who could throw a line into the water but the fish were very small, in fact bigger ones were caught in the

High Schools Will Compete At Idora Park

Annual Swimming Event Is Scheduled for Tomorrow Afternoon.

Swimmers from high schools in the bay region will gather for the annual meet of the north coast section of the California Interscholastic Federation at Idora Park tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. More than 100 entries have been made for the meet and seven high schools in the bay counties will send their swimming teams. Rivalry between Berkeley and Alameda will add zest to the meet as Berkeley won the Alameda County Athletic League swimming meet from Alameda by three small points two weeks ago, and the Encinal city swimmers are eager to pile up more points than the Berkeleyites in this meet. San Jose and Lick-Wilmerding are also sending strong teams to the meet.

The officials are: Frank N. Williams, referee; Judges, Schaefer, Marriot, Rittler, Faulkner, Meyer, Timmer, Plumb, Wenderling, Vogt and Golden. The entries are: 50 yards—Yarvan, Grace, Alameda; Edgar, Cherry, Berkeley; Grace, Bell, Lick-Wilmerding; Howard, Plumb, Lick-Wilmerding; Warden, San Jose; Yarnall, Burns, San Mateo; Castles, Gleason, Tamalpais. 100 yards, 120 pounds—Berkeley; Mitchell, W. AFTER MANY YEARS, PORTLAND BEAVERS LEAD P. C. L. RACE

LOS ANGELES CLUB IS AGAIN SLOW IN STARTING BUT SHOULD BE UP IN THE LEAD SOON

MARTY KRUG LOOKS FOR HIS ATHLETES TO SHOW STUFF VERY SOON

Portland Beavers Are Setting Fast Pace for Other Clubs; Oak Batsmen Have Come Out of Slump; McCarthy Says Vernon Did Not Break Rule.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

The Los Angeles baseball team each spring makes a fellow think of a big railroad engine, that has a tough time getting started, but once it gets going, it travels at a fast speed and is hard to stop. The Angels were slow starters last year and the year before, and this year we again see them down at the bottom of the heap. They have been playing a see-saw game with Ivan Howard's Oaks, and yesterday saw the southern boys slip back into the basement when the Seals defeated them 5 to 4 in a great ten-inning game across the bay, and the Oaks came through with an easy victory over the Vernon Tigers in the south. Marty Krug, new manager of the Angels, has practically the same club as "Red" Killefer had last season, and we are convinced now that Killefer had a lot of slow starters under his wing.

The Angels do not figure to remain around the bottom of the ladder very long. They should hit their stride soon, and it will not be surprising if they get away from San Francisco with the series. Earl "Red" Baldwin, catcher for the Angels, and who does not think the Oaks have a strong enough pitching staff to get by on, says that the Angels will be up among the leaders in another couple of weeks. But Baldwin has nothing on Manager Marty Krug when it comes to making such a prediction. Krug says his Angels will be leading the race by Decoration Day.

Looks All Wrong for Beavers to Lead Race.

The baseball fans who have not kept a close eye on the race for the Coast League pennant might think that this was April Fool's Day by looking at the Club Standings and seeing the Portland Beavers at the top of the ladder. It has been a long, long time since the Beavers held such a high position, and the fans in the Rose City of the northwest must be going daffy over Manager Jimmy Middleton and his boys. The Oaks helped out the Beavers in the lead by defeating the Vernon Tigers, while the Beavers took the Seattle Indians down the line. With the Beavers in the race, things should be more interesting for the northwest fans this season, and in fact for those all over the coast. For the last few years, the Coast League races rested between a few clubs, but it looks like things will be different this year.

The Oaks are now seven games behind the leaders, but if they can keep pasting the ball like they did against the Salt Lake Bees and Vernon Tigers, they are likely to be high up in the race in a couple of weeks, as they certainly have four good pitchers in Mails, Krause, Arlett and Kremen. Arlett has not yet hit his stride, but when he does, he will be as hard to beat as any chucker in the league. McCarthy Says Vernon Did Not Break Draft Rule.

Who is to blame for the muddle which involves the Vernon Tigers of the Coast League and New York Yankees of the American League? Commissioner Landis has ruled Ray French and Jesse Doyle as ineligible to play with either of those clubs, because he says he has it in black and white that both those players were turned over to the Tigers by the New York Yankees after January 15. Now comes the Coast League with the announcement that the Tigers did not break any rules, as he received a wire yesterday from Secretary Farrell, who says that he has it in the records that Doyle and French were both released to the Tigers on January 8. Still the owners of the Oakland club claim to have a telegram dated January 22 in which Doyle and French are offered for sale. It might be possible that President McCarthy will straighten things out so that French and Doyle can play in the league with Vernon, and he will be doing the right thing by the players, who should not be made to suffer because of the mistakes of the club owners.

Tranquil Winner of Big British Race

NEWMARKET, May 4 (By the Associated Press).—The Earl of Derby's Tranquil, by Sycamore, out of Serenissima, won the One Thousand Guineas stake at one mile, run here today. H. H. Aga Khan's Cos. by Flying Orb, out of Renaissance, was second, and Sir Edward Tilton's Shrove, by Fomern, out of Silver Tag, was third. Sixteen horses ran. The betting was Tranquil, 5 to 2 against; Cos., 10 to 1 against; Shrove, 100 to 5 against.

J. Dempsey Likes to See "Dinky" Do His Stuff

DINKY DEIN, the little four-year-old moulton star and his Uncle JACK DEMPSEY, NASH, suits Dinky better than a day at Uncle Jack's home, where he can romp and play with the champion's dogs—and the heavyweight champion has about six of the finest dogs in the world. Dinky received his first experience with Jack Dempsey's show where he used to stroll onto the stage any time he liked, and when Dinky's father reprimanded him Jack said: "Let the kid do his stuff—this is my show." "Go ahead Dinky, let's see you do your stuff"—and Dinky would walk out and he would stay out there until some one would call him off. "Dinky" is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Freisner of East Oakland.

COUGARS BEAT AGGIES.

PULLMAN, Wash., May 4.—The Washington State College Cougars started the conference season yesterday by defeating Oregon Agricultural College baseball team 10 to 3.

Oakland Umpire is Center of Riot

Petaluma, May 4.—A general fight was precipitated here yesterday afternoon when the championship game of the C. I. M. League, between Anady and Petaluma high schools, was called in the eleventh inning, with the score 4-4, on account of darkness.

When Umpire Earl of Oakland called the game Petaluma players took offense and rushed on to the diamond in protest. A crowd gathered and several blows were struck. Further hostilities were halted by the police.

It was stated the game probably will be played over at Santa Rosa next Saturday.

Gridley Golfers to Organize a Club

GRIDLEY, May 4.—A movement has been started by local golf enthusiasts to form a golf club and which will include golfers from Oroville, Biggs and Gridley. A tract of land that will be easily accessible to the three cities will be rented and a nine-hole course will be laid out. It has been planned to secure the cooperation of the players from Oroville and Biggs and whom it is thought will round out the membership of the club. The method of financing the club is to have 100 charter members who will join at $25, which will pay for the laying out of the course and the rent of the ground for the first year.

A suitable piece of ground is said to be in the Central House district, midway between Oroville and Gridley.

Locals Find Jackie May's Shoots Easy

Dell Goes to Rescue But He is Also Bumped to All Corners

LOS ANGELES, May 3.—Gathering sixteen hits off the pitching of Jackie May and "Wheeler" Dell, Vernon's star moundsmen, for a 14 to 5 victory, the Oaks made it two out of three for the series, besides climbing out of the cellar when San Francisco defeated Los Angeles in an extra inning combat at the former's home lot.

For the first time this season Ivan Howard's boys looked like the real goods, with every man on the line-up eliciting out at least one safe single. Jackie May, who last season was one of the best pitchers in the league, looked like an ordinary sand-lotter against the Acorns. The left handed batter of the Oakland team found May as easy to hit as a right handed chucker, and after being bunched around the lot for three innings, Dell's little portlander was yanked in favor of "Wheeler" Dell, who was treated equally as cruelly as his predecessor.

McGaffigan, who made three hits and who is due to be one of the best left-off men in the league, opened the game by beating out an infield hit. After Willie laid down a sacrifice, Cooper elicited out a double to bring in McGaffigan for the first tally of the contest.

Two more tallies were rung up in the second. Baker walked, smugly sauntered, and on a wild throw by May to second, Baker went to third and Smith to second. Jackie went up in the air and passed Krause to fill the bases, and on an infield out by McGaffigan, Baker scored. May again filled the paths by hitting Willie, and the second and final tally of the inning trickled across when Smith scored on Cooper's infield out.

After Knight went out in the third frame, Brubaker's walk and hits by Baker and Smith gave the Oaks another run and paved the way for May's departure. Dell replaced Jackie, and Krause greeted him with a double to bring in Baker. Smith crossed the platter for the third run of the stanza a moment later when McGaffigan went out via short to first. In the fourth a walk to Cather and Brubaker's double to left brought in another run, while in the fifth doubles by Krause and Willie, singles by McGaffigan and Cooper, and three costly errors paved the way for a quartet of runs.

The Oaks added one more in the sixth and two more in the final stanza, while the Tigers scored their only markers in the sixth and seventh, when Krause eased up with a twelve run lead to his credit. The score:

Home Runs in Big Leagues Are Numerous

Short Fences Make Even the Weak Hitters Look Like Babe Ruths.

NEW YORK, May 4.—While we are not exactly enamored of Earl Johnson's proposed zoning system for regulating home runs, it has become apparent that something of the kind would not be amiss at a few of the major league parks, with particular reference to the Cubs' ramshackle plant on the north side of Chicago. There are no less than eighteen home runs were made during the first four games of the playing season, and if that is baseball, then fried cabbage is odorless.

Before the extra seats were installed the Cub park was small enough. Now, it must be impossible, or at least, highly improbable, otherwise, ordinary hitters would not be making as many as two home runs a day there.

Connie Mack has had the interest of baseball at heart in erecting screens in front of the left field bleachers at Shibe Park, Philadelphia, and unless the club management cares to have its park become the joke of the circuit it will follow this example. Mack had no ulterior motive in placing the screens in position. In fact, those bleachers were an inviting target for Philie Walker and Bing Miller, a pair of Mr. Mack's outfielders, during the 1922 season. However, the Philadelphia leader now has the satisfaction of putting an end to those trick homers that cleared the low left field barrier on the second bunt.

The Phillies in the National League might well do likewise, for their left field bleachers are even nearer the plate than those at Shibe Park. However, we have ceased to look for reform from the Phillies, who have lost as many games as they have won through slapstick smashes not only into the bleachers but also beyond the very adjacent right field wall.

In 1916, for example, they installed extra seats in center field for the world's series, with the idea of giving Cactus Cravath a chance to pop a few in there in the playoffs. Instead, however, Harry Hooper and Duffy Lewis readily found the range, and Cravath never delivered.

WOMAN NAMED TAX COLLECTOR

FREEMONT, May 4.—Miss Corigan is said to be the only chartered city in the state with a woman tax collector, following the appointment to that office of Miss Alice Corigan at last night's meeting of the city council. Miss Corigan has occupied the position of deputy city clerk for a considerable period of time.

Chief of Police Becker formerly discharged the duties of tax collector, but the terms of the new charter prohibit the police chief from holding the office of tax collector.

Governor Signs
Five Bills and Then Vetoes One

SACRAMENTO, May 4.—Governor Richardson today signed the following bills:

A. B. 208, by Kline, Pendergast, Jones and Davis—Creates a commission for the purpose of conferring regarding the boundary between Arizona and California with reference particularly to the present channel of the Colorado river.

A. B. 87, by Douglas—Purports to validate the Klamath-Shasta valley irrigation district.

A. B. 288, by Spencer—Relates to negotiable instruments.

A. B. 1016, by Scott—Amends the title to the act of 1919 establishing a state highway to the Nevada state line.

A. B. 1264, by McDowell—Validates the Stinson area district of Fresno county.

Governor Richardson vetoes A. B. 950 by West. This bill provided for the formation of park districts in unincorporated territories. The governor said there was no general demand for such a law and also raised some technical objections based on authority conferred on supervisors in connection with the formation of the proposed districts.

BATTLE TO PAVE
10TH STREET TO
BE REVIVED SOON

A battle for the grading and paving of Tenth street in the mud flats behind the auditorium, will be waged this year to the bitter end by the street department, according to Superintendent of Streets W. W. Harmon, who asserts that a new traffic outlet across the southern end of Lake Merritt is one of the most urgent needs of Oakland today.

"Most persons do not realize that nearly 40,000 vehicles per day pass along the Twelfth street dam in front of the auditorium," says Harmon. "This is our only connecting link between downtown Oakland and the eastern part of the city. It is getting overcrowded. With the tremendous increase in the automobile output, it is going to be worse. Oakland will ultimately come to a grinding halt. Twelfth street cannot possibly handle the volume of traffic."

A plan to cut Tenth street through, behind the auditorium, was broached in last year's budget but finally cut out by the blue-pencil committee.
